WHAT DOES GOD LOOK LIKE?

I heard about a father who was watching his small son draw a picture. Intensely focused, the young boy was totally engrossed in his work of art. Crayons were scattered everywhere. Unfinished sketches were wadded and cast aside.

Without wanting to break the boy's concentration, dad gently inquired, "Son, what are you drawing?"

Never looking up, the small boy replied, "God."

Somewhat taken aback, his father said, "Well, no one knows what God looks like."

Confidently gazing at his masterpiece, the boy retorted, "They will when I get through."

We all have a picture of God in our minds. And our picture of God is critically important to who we are. In fact, our picture of God is the most important thing about us.

Theologian, A.W. Tozer once said "The most important thing about you is what comes into your mind when you think of God!"

If so, then a spiritual flaw regarding our mental picture of God can have a devastating effect on our faith. We must have a right view of God, or else it will be distorted and out of focus.

God recognized the value of a divine portrait and inspired Isaiah to prophetically paint a portrait of the coming Christ several hundreds of years prior to His arrival. In reference to the coming Christ, he wrote:

He will be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
