Sprucing things up

'Mini' nets two for win

Darren 'Mini' Haydar delivered his first multi-goal game of the season to give his American Hockey League (AHL) Milwaukee Admirals a 2-0 decision over Chicago Wednesday night.

Milton's NHL hopeful — who's been struggling to gain ice time and put up points this year — scored on a first-period deflection and again on a third-period power-play rebound to fuel the win.

The goals were his fourth and fifth of the season, his second in the AHL.

Haydar's Admirals improved to 12-5-3-2 with the shutout victory and climbed into a tie for second place in the AHL's Western Division.

Milwaukee played host to San Antonio last night and continues its home stand tomorrow evening against Grand Rapids.

TONIGHT'S TICKET

IceHawks (20-11-0-1) vs. Georgetown (29-2-2)

Game time: 7:30 p.m. at Memorial
Last meeting: Milton won 3-2 in Georgetown Saturday.

Who to watch: Supporting cast rookies Julian Sarraino and Mike Sansom offered gritty play in Saturday's upset and will need to deliver more of the same for Milton to keep pace with the conference leaders.

The skinny: Despite having home-ice advantage and being on a hot streak lately, the IceHawks just aren't likely to sweep a home-and-home series against front-running Georgetown.

Champion's pick: Georgetown by two
