BISHOP REDING HIGH SCHOOL

Staff and students of Bishop Reding bounced back this week after the break, feeling well rested and ready for the last stretch before the new semester. The week prior to the break ended with a number of events that got everyone into the Christmas spirit. On Thursday, members of the music and vocal programs at B.R. put on an amazing show of their talents. The outstanding act included the Senior Band, Jazz Band, Guitars, Choir, and Vocal Class, who all showed not only their spectacular abilities, but also their profound respect for the pieces they performed. All who participated and attended would like to thank both Mr. Alfano and Ms. Caruana for their dedication and support.

On the Friday before the break, Bishop Reding held it's annual Christmas assembly. The assembly featured many talented acts, such as beat boxing by Chris Carmichael. The staff of B.R. even made an appearance in their rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Fun was had by all, and it was an amazing start to the break. A huge thank you goes out to the Clubs Club for organizing this assembly, which is not soon to be forgotten.

In other news, the Bishop Reding cast of "Little Shop of Horrors" continues their rehearsals in this New Year. This year's lead roles will be featuring the ever wonderful Elizabeth Huges and the outgoing Mark Ross. The students of B.R. are anxiously awaiting this performance, which will be held in May.

This week was also a busy week back for the Bishop Reding athletic teams. The Senior Girls Volleyball team lost their game, after a strong battle by all players. Special mention goes out to Lindsay Furik, who once again showed her amazing athletic ability with many good hits throughout the game. The Junior Girls volleyball also started their week with an exciting game. The coaches would like to congratulate Michelle Serafini for the excellent effort, work, and determination during game. In male athletics, the Senior Boys Basketball team started off the New Year on the right foot and ended up winning their game. Marcus Gray played an amazing game and once again showed his outstanding abilities. In Junior Boys Basketball, the boys lost their first game back, but put in an excellent effort on all accounts. The coaches would like to recognize, once again, Joey Mello for his amazing plays.

The students of Bishop Reding had a busy week of assignments, culminating activities, tests, ISU's, and exam preparation, but still make some time for relaxation with the new foosball table in the cafetorium. We would like to take this time to encourage all students who are scrambling to finish off the semester on a high note, and congratulate them on their efforts!

MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL “MUSTANG MESSENGER”

The students of MD came back to school with hopes of a snow day, but another day of sleeping in after the holidays would be too much to ask. Instead assignments long since forgotten and more work greeted them, obliterating all joy left over from big meals and presents. What a welcome back to school.

The Prefect organization had developed a few fundraisers previous to the break, raising money for MD's Christmas collection. Well over $1,000 was raised in total, over $800 of it being donated by Prefects. Thank you to those who donated and helped make somebody's holiday season that much brighter.

The Girls hockey team's season is looking brighter after they tied MM Robinson their first day back. Helping out was Tara Eagles whose hat-trick closed the gap and gave MD their second point of the season. Coach Ferguson was "impressed by their effort" and notes that the team is "improving with every game."

The Boys team had slightly more trouble in their game, playing with a short bench. The score was in double digits (for the other team) by the final buzzer. This lesson will perhaps give the squad a much-needed boost before playoffs.

There is a lot to prepare before a group of enthusiastic students head off to Italy during their March break. Already some have started the countdown, only too eager to have a change of scenery.

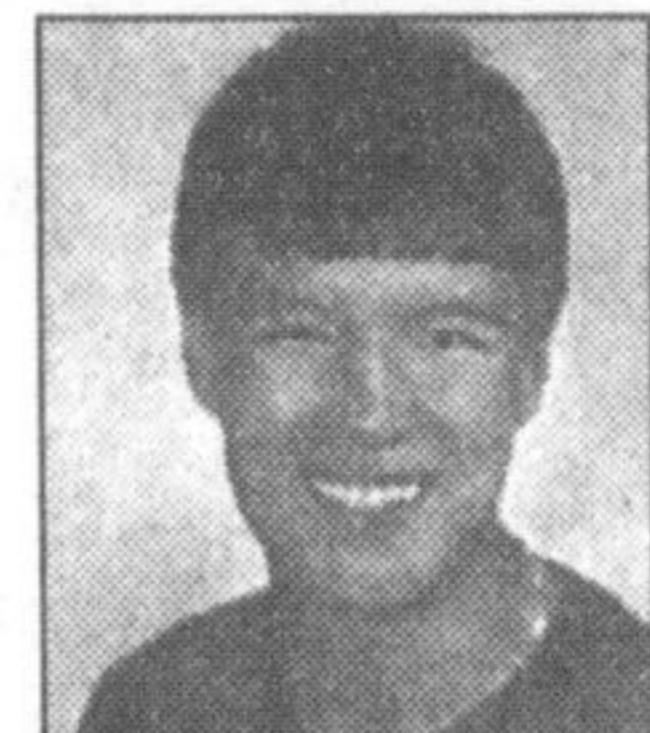

Another big event is the Prefect sponsored Semi-formal dance coming up March 5th. This year's theme is Hollywood glamour, so prepare your Zorro costumes well in advance. This is a must see event for senior students and must not be missed. Tickets will be on sale by the end of the month, and will sell-out fast, so be ready when the moment comes.

Exams are fast approaching meaning most students are suffering from sleep deprivation and extreme forms of stress. It makes the holidays seem like a dream of the past, but there is hope. March break is only a few months away...
