

Charges laid in thefts at golf clubs

Halton Regional Police have charged a Toronto man in connection with two separate thefts last year at golf clubs, including one in Milton.

On November 20 last year, police said an employee saw a customer leave the pro shop at Rattlesnake Point Golf and Country Club on Regional Road 25 with four Titleist golf clubs for which he hadn't paid. The clubs had a combined value of $3,500. The employee saw the man drive off, but not before he obtained the licence plate number.

A month-and-a-half before that incident, a man had left the pro shop at Glen Abbey Golf Course on Dorval Drive in Oakville with two Odyssey putters valued at $590. He got into a vehicle and drove away, but an employee took down his licence plate number.

A 35-year-old Toronto man has been charged with two counts of theft under $5,000.

Man pleads not guilty

A Milton man pleaded not guilty to 24 firearms charges this week.

Donald Pelz, 74, of Bell School Line, appeared Monday in Ontario Court of Justice in Oakville before Judge Lesley Baldwin.

The trial of Mr. Pelz, who owns a 23-acre farm, continued Tuesday and Wednesday, but the details can't be printed due to a publication ban imposed to protect a related case currently before the courts.

The charges, laid August 22, 2002, include nine counts each of possessing a firearm without a licence and storing a firearm in a careless manner, as well as having a loaded firearm without a licence and possession of a firearm with readily accessible ammunition.

The trial will continue May 10 in Burlington.

SMOKING what's the point?

Someday, you'll be offered a cigarette or be tempted to smoke.

Before you start, think about it: every drag you take screws up your body.

Smoking can cause permanent damage to your body. Once a person starts, it becomes extremely tough to quit. And did we mention all that cash you'll be blowing in the process?

So, if you're tempted to start, ask yourself, "What's the point?"
