Library has March Break kits

There's one universal phrase every parent dreads hearing: I'm bored.

Fortunately, the Milton Public Library, 45 Bruce St., is once again offering its March Break Survival Kits to keep kids busy and having fun. Kit organizers said they were a hit last year.

The kits contain crafts, games, bookmarks and a trivia contest, and are designed for kids ages 6 and up.

Parents and kids are invited to pick theirs up at the library while they last.

The kits are free, but a donation of a non-perishable food item for the local food bank would be welcome.

For more information, call the library at (905) 875-2665.
