Arcady at Knox church Apr. 10

Milton will be the destination of a renowned touring ensemble this month for a special Easter concert.

April 10 at 7:30 p.m., Arcady will perform Handel's beloved Messiah at Knox Presbyterian Church, located at 170 Main St. E.

In the past five years, Arcady has performed Handel's Messiah about 50 times, bringing the brilliant score to life for audiences.

The Arcady ensemble was formed to provide outstanding young musicians playing opportunities to bridge their student and professional performing careers.

Directed by Ronald Beckett, the group includes motivated singers and instrumentalists seeking to broaden their performing experience.

"It promises to be a wonderful concert performed in true Baroque style with a small chamber choir and appropriate instruments," said Sonja van de Hoef, director of music at Knox Presbyterian Church.

Tickets cost $10 and can be purchased by calling the church at (905) 878-6066.

New band event starts next week interested in original music," he said. "There's a market for this and a following."

He added that although a lot of the bands in April's line-up are metal and hard rock, future acts will encompass a wider variety of music.

A local band is expected to play in June, which Mr. Giangrande said will be the first of what he hopes will be many local bands for the all-original nights.

Betty Dworatschek is president of Metal Queen Management, the promotion and artist management company responsible for bringing in the acts.

She said some of the bands are signed with record labels and some aren't. "They want as much exposure as possible so they can get a record label," Ms Dworatschek said.

She added the Thursday night line-ups will coincide with Hardball's 10-cent wing night. There's a $5 cover.

Dance Elite troops shine at challenge

Dance Elite dance school began its competitive season on the right — ahem — toes at a competition held earlier this month.

"Hard work and plenty of practising paid off as many of the dance teams, duets, trios and quartets scored first and seconds," said Dance Elite's Kathy Best. "Congratulations to all our dancers."

The CDTA Ontario Dance Challenge took place March 6 and 7 at Port Credit Secondary School.

The Outstanding Group award went to Dance Elite students Diana Best, Samantha Lloyd, Audra Wickens and Ashley Molyneux. They also took the Adjudicator's Choice award for their quartet tap performance.

The highest solo mark of the competition went to Addison Brasil for his jazz solo 'Diggin' on James Brown'.

Hearthside series continues Apr. 17

Halton Region Museum is set to get globally rhythmic.

On April 17, the Kelso Conservation Area-based museum will continue its Hearthside Dinner and Music Series by hosting Toronto's Luvaulo Silva, who'll perform a lively mix of Mediterranean and Latin tunes. The Angola-born musician — whose repertoire spans three continents and includes five languages — highlights a fundraising evening that will begin with dinner at 7 p.m. Entertainment will follow until 11 p.m. The evening will also include a cash bar.

Tickets cost $40 per person and can be purchased by calling (905) 875-2200, 21. Proceeds from the event will aid in the construction of an artifact centre at Halton Region Museum.
