

Temporary Canada Post outlet to open Tuesday

A second Canada Post outlet will open temporarily beginning Tuesday to serve residents who don't live near the primary Brown Street location.

Located at 497 Laurier Ave., IDA will sell stamps and offer package pick-up.

"This should alleviate some of the congestion (at the Brown Street location)," said Canada Post spokesperson Scott Lewis, adding a permanent full-service franchise outlet hasn't yet been found.

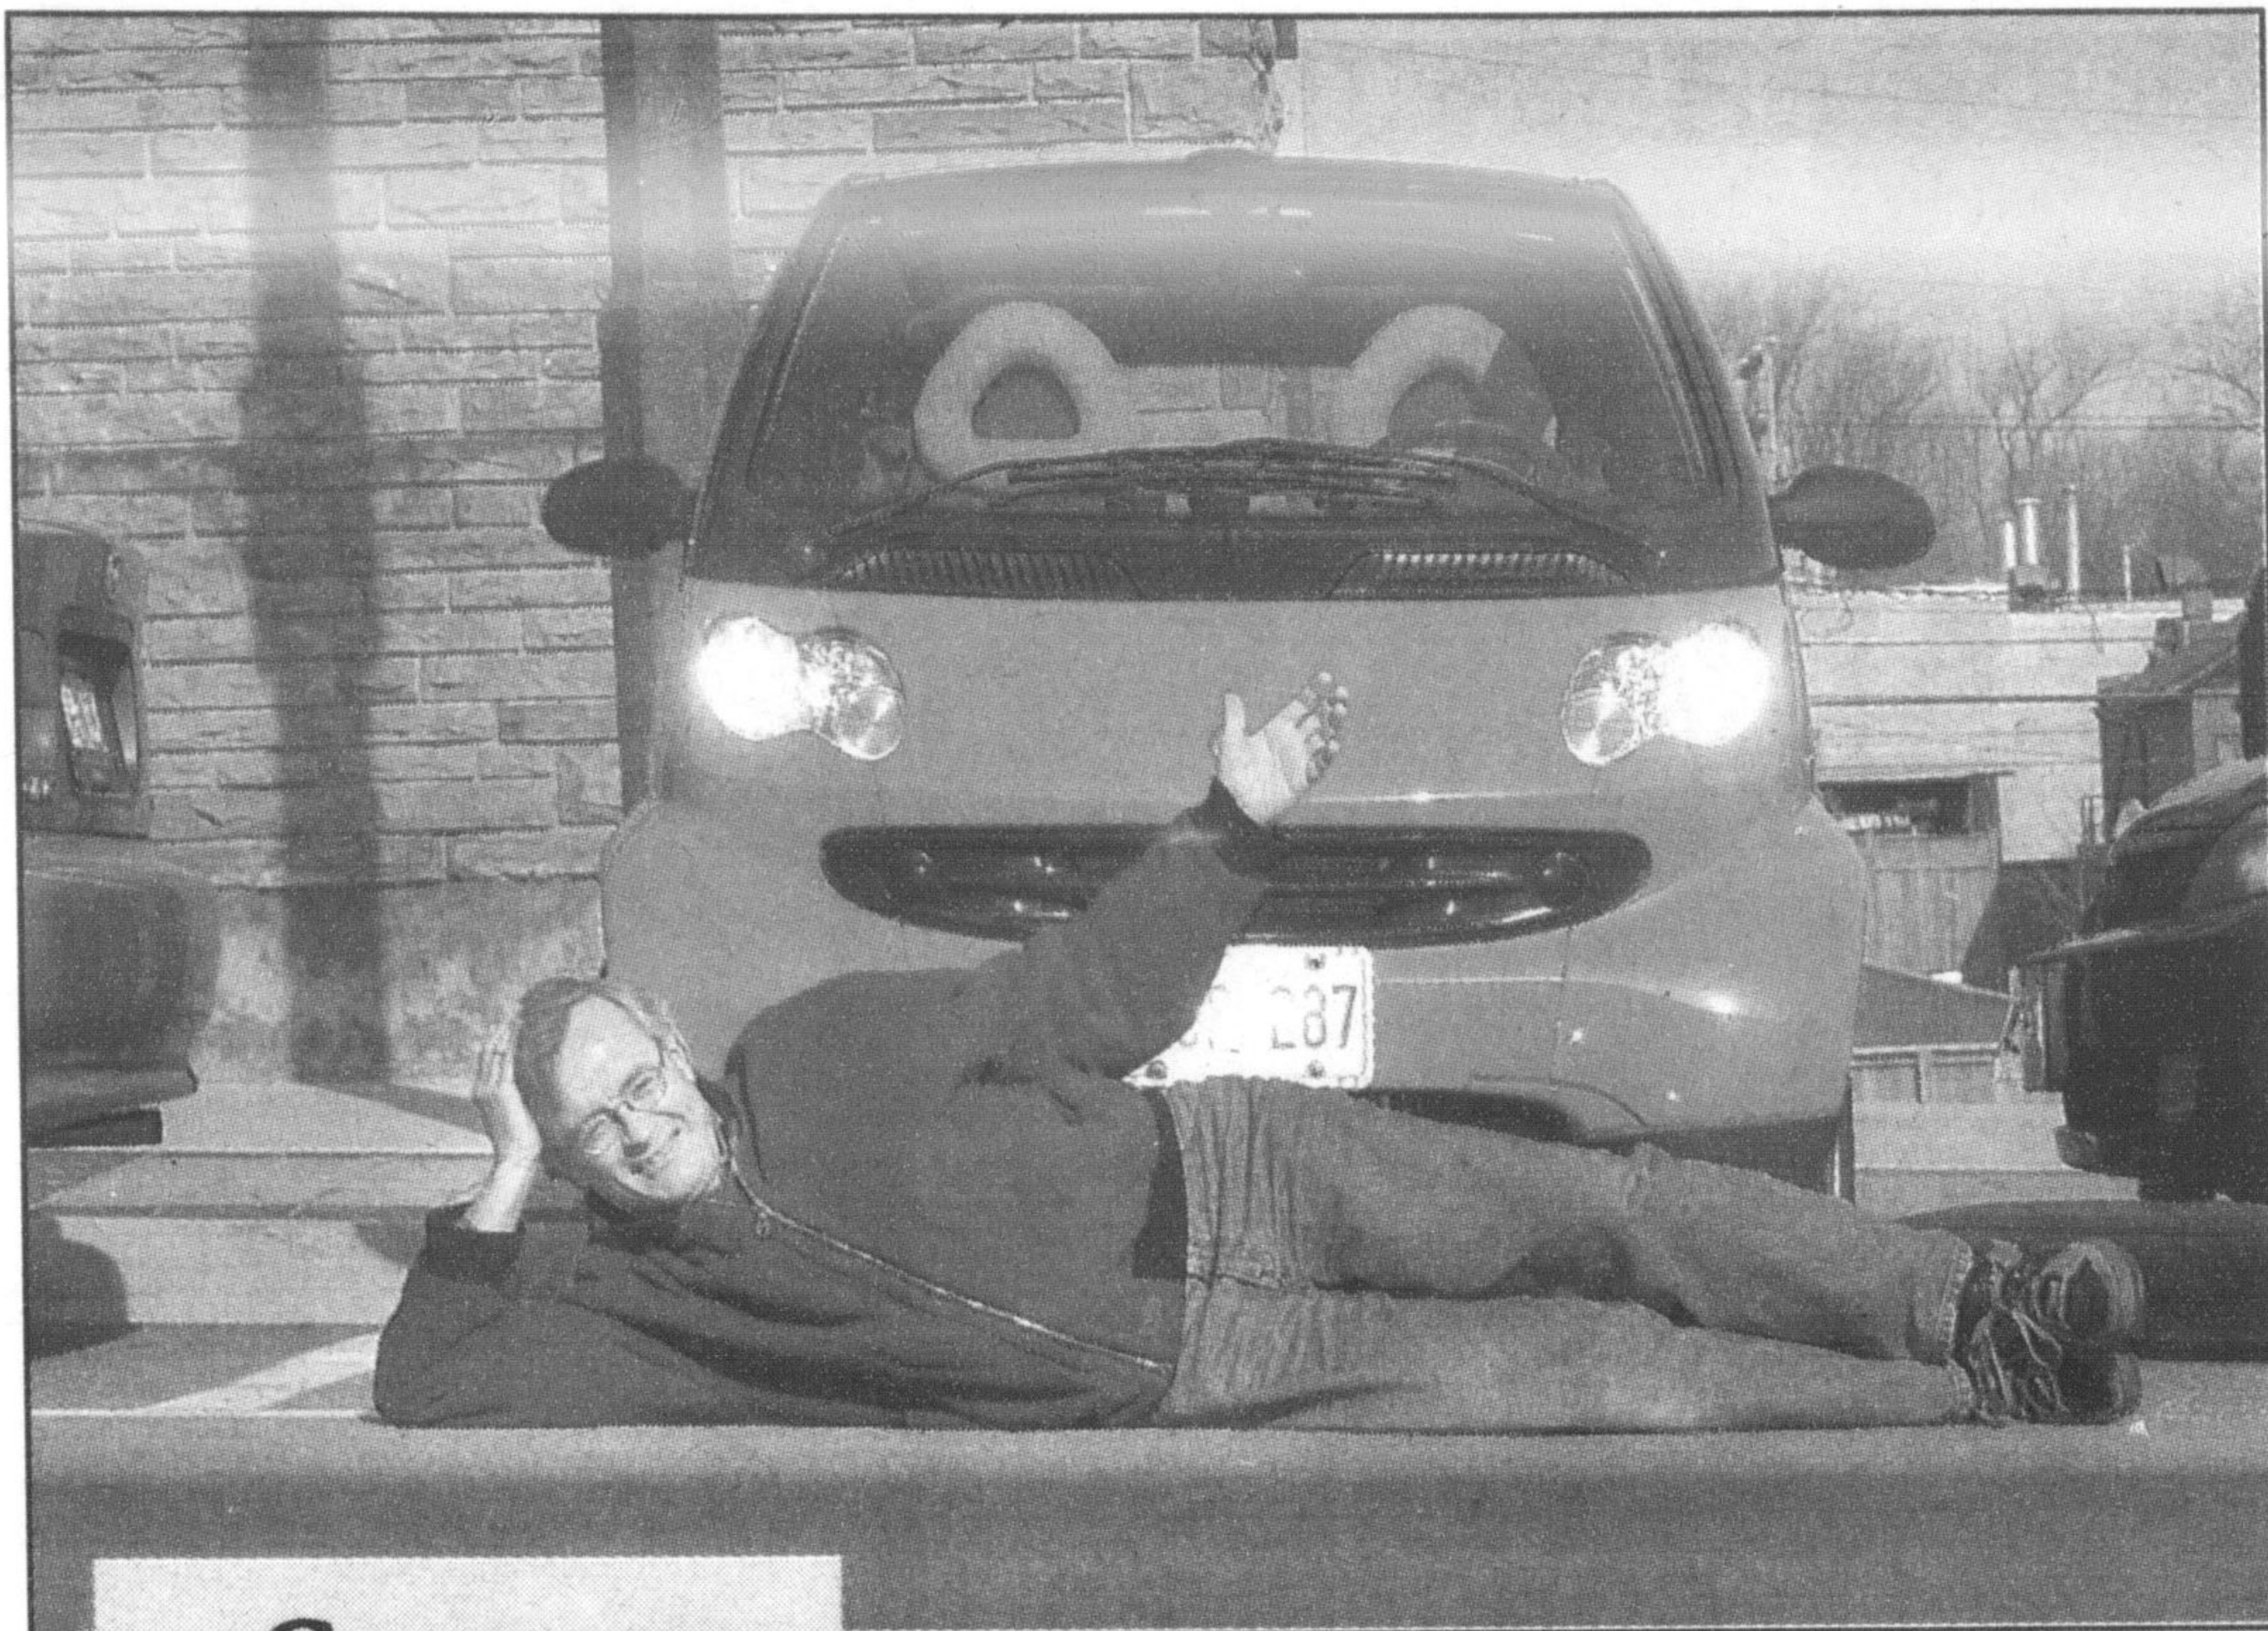

The Canada Post outlet in the Paper Zone at Milton Mall was closed in November and a criminal investigation was launched. It was revealed that Canada Post had been defrauded of almost $7,500 through illegitimate postage stamping.

A 38-year-old Mississauga man was charged.

The Brown Street location will continue its extended hours, which are Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and closed Sundays. IDA's hours are the same.

The Brown Street outlet is closed today and Easter Monday. IDA is closed today and open Monday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Smart car

SMOKING what's the point?

Someday, you'll be offered a cigarette or be tempted to smoke. Before you start, think about it: every drag you take screws up your body. Smoking can cause permanent damage to your body. Once a person starts, it becomes extremely tough to quit. And did we mention all that cash you'll be blowing in the process? So, if you're tempted to start, ask yourself, "What's the point?"
