Marketing/Public Relations Specialist Metroland Printing, Publishing and Distributing HALTON DIVISION

Working out of our Oakville office, we are looking for a creative and forward thinking individual who will be responsible for building and promoting the image of the Halton Division to both internal and external clients.

- Responsibilities will include:
- Assist in the development and co-ordination of marketing promotions and contests within Halton Division publications.
 - Manage and produce all components of employee communications (written and verbal), including preparation of press releases and product launch communications.
 - Strategic development of advertising placements and media relations for internal media (Metroland and TorStar) as well as other media.
 - Improve existing communication vehicles and develop new methods to effectively communicate with both internal employee base and externally.
 - Attend industry events on behalf of all properties.

- Education/Skills/Experience required:
- Post-secondary education required, ideally in journalism, public relations or corporate communications;
 - Creative, "out-of-the-box" thinker;
 - Excellent presentation skills;
 - Superior written communications skills for print and internal communication vehicles;
 - Strong background in evaluating and measuring the effectiveness of communication programs and activities;
 - Good project management skills with proven ability to simultaneously handle multiple tasks and shifting priorities;
 - Ability to work independently with minimal supervision;
 - Results-oriented and solid understanding of "sense of urgency";
 - Solid ability to set, manage and deliver to expectations;
 - A strong attention to detail.

Please email your resumes to cching@metroland.com or by fax to 905-632-0308 by May 7th, 2004.
