

Fencing duo earn top awards

Two Milton fencers/pentathletes earned distinction at the recent provincial leadership conference in Markham.

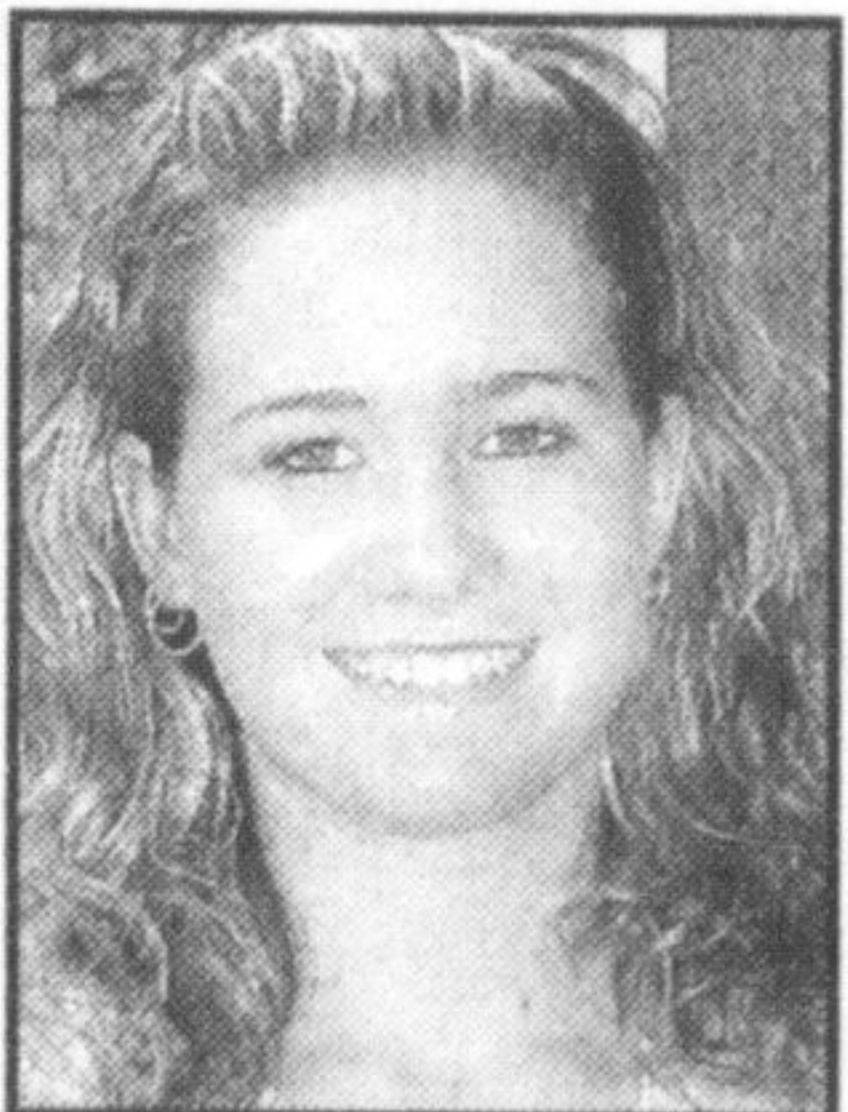

Vadim Shelekhov and Samantha Stubbins — both teen competitors with the local club — received 2004 James Worrall Awards, plus the financial assistance that goes with them.

Fifteen-year-old Vadim stood out with a number of first-place efforts last season, including gold in individual cadet competition earlier this spring at the Ontario Winter Games.

He also took top honours at the Pentathlon Winter Nationals, as well as at the recent Newmarket Junior Open.

"It's an honour to win such an award for my dedication to the sport of pentathlon," he said.

Fourteen-year-old Samantha also enjoyed an impressive season — highlighting things with gold at the recent junior provincial fencing championships in Waterloo and bronze-medal performances in individual cadet fencing and team fencing at the Ontario Winter Games.

She also took third at the Pentathlon Winter Nationals.

Said Samantha, "I was very shocked and honoured to win the award and am very grateful to the OMPA, who nominated me to the Sports Alliance."

The other local nominees were 13-year-old Dakota McLaren and 10-year-old Anthony Sereda.

Mavericks get silenced in Mimico

The Mavericks' playoff hopes are fading fast, and production followed suit in Mimico Thursday night.

Dipping to a season low offensively, Milton scored just once in each half and were toppled 13-2.

Matt Bolton and Troy Hazzard had the goals in the penalty-filled division showdown, which dropped the Mavericks to 1-8.

Milton enjoyed fairly solid goaltending from Chris Ingraham through the early going, but collapsed down the stretch and allowed seven unanswered goals in the third period.

Captain Kyle Goertz was limited to a single assist, while fellow sniper Jon Sweetland was kept off the scoresheet entirely.

The Mavericks close out their three-game road trip Friday night in Wallaceburg. Saturday they return to John Tonelli Sports Centre for their best shot at a victory in recent weeks, against lowly Gloucester. Game time is 7 p.m.

They close out the week in Scarborough Sunday afternoon against the Saints.
