Man assaulted while trying to stop vandals from kicking cable box

Police are searching for a suspect after a 20-year-old Milton man was punched in the head Sunday.

Just before 1 a.m., two men driving in the area of Harvest and Roseheath drives saw two individuals kicking a cable box. They stopped the car and told the pair to stop, and a verbal altercation ensued. The man sitting in the back seat of the car then sustained a punch to his forehead. There were no serious injuries.

The suspect is described as a white male around 19 or 20 years old, five-foot-11, 220 pounds with a heavy build and a beard. He was wearing a dark baseball cap and a grey or blue long-sleeved jacket.

Driver assaulted

An apparent case of road rage led to an 18-year-old Milton man being struck in the face May 27.

Just before 7 p.m. a man was driving on Steeles Avenue where he told police he cut off another vehicle. When he stopped for a red light at Main and Ontario streets, he was approached by a man who got out of his vehicle.

When the driver rolled down his window, he was struck with an open hand on his left eye. There were no serious injuries.

Police are looking for a white male, about five-foot-nine and 150 to 160 pounds with a greying beard and an average build. He was wearing a black baseball cap, a black fleece zippered top and blue jeans.

He was driving a tan-coloured, two-door car, possibly a Ford.

Woman surprises intruder

A Beaver Court woman watching TV in her basement was surprised Sunday night when she heard an intruder enter her house through the back door.

She heard the rear screen door open at about 10 p.m.

Police said the woman ran out the front door and saw a man running from her backyard.

The suspect was last seen running west-bound along Laurier Avenue.

Police are looking for a white male between 17 and 18 years old, 6 feet tall, slim, with ear-length light brown wavy hair.

He was wearing jeans, a t-shirt and running shoes, all black.

A diamond engagement ring was among the items stolen during the break-in of a Kingsway Place home May 26.

Sometime between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., unknown suspects entered the home through a rear door. Travellers' cheques and jewelry including a diamond pendant, a gold bracelet and a gold Seiko watch were stolen.

Drunk driving charge laid

Police laid impaired driving charges after a driver was found lying in his vehicle in the Bumper's Restaurant parking lot Sunday at about 3 a.m.

The keys were in the ignition.

Charged with impaired driving, having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood and possession of a controlled substance was a 45-year-old Fourth Line man.

Four cars parked at a Childs Drive town-house complex were damaged by unknown suspects who 'keyed' the cars. A 1992 Mazda, a red 1994 Ford Escort, a black 2003 Volkswagen and a gold 1996 Saturn were damaged.

A 2003 Toyota parked at a Robertson Crescent home was also keyed, causing $1,000 in damage.
