

Acton youth is Catholic school board student trustee for north Halton area

The Halton Catholic District School Board has elected its three student trustees for the 2004-05 school year.

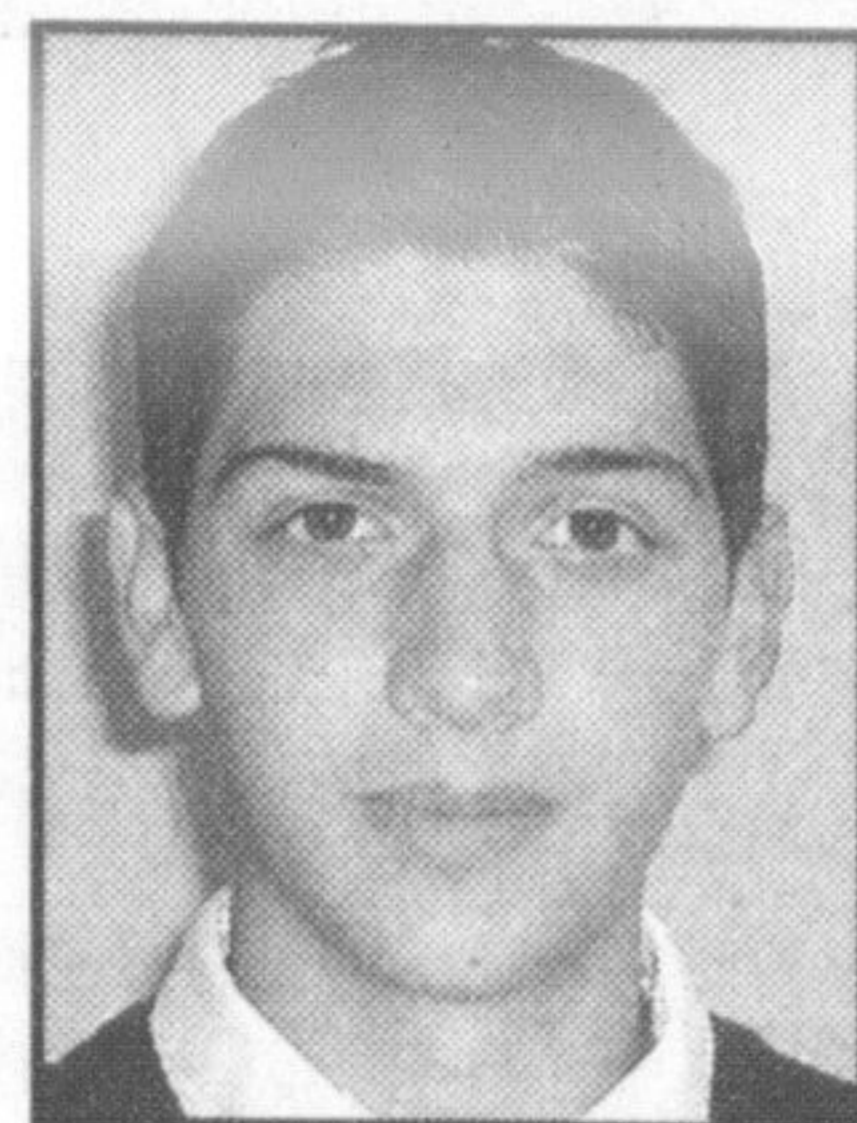

The trio — Oakville's Michelle Racine, Acton's Anthony Luna and Burlington's Lyndsey Canham — were formally introduced at a recent board meeting by Chair Al Bailey.

Anthony, a grade 10 student at Christ the King Secondary School in Georgetown, will be north Halton's student trustee.

In welcoming the students, Mr. Bailey commended the three on the important responsibility they have agreed to undertake in representing the interests of almost 7,600 students attending Halton's Catholic secondary schools.

Anthony replaces former north Halton student trustee Graeme Owens of Christ the King Secondary School.

An accomplished athlete and honour

roll student, Anthony said he's looking forward to working alongside his fellow student trustees, board trustees and administration. Through his past experience as student council president at St. Joseph Elementary School in Acton, and more recently as the Halton Catholic District School Board representative for the 2002 Ontario Catholic Schools Trustee Association, Anthony has honed his leadership and communication skills. Moreover, he's an exemplary student and is actively involved in a variety of sports at Christ the King Secondary School, including volleyball, basketball and soccer.

In the 2002-03 school year, Anthony was the recipient of the Most Promising Athlete Award, as well as the Most Valuable Contributor Award. In addition, he maintains three part-time jobs and volunteers his time for various school activities.

Anthony is said to model Catholic values in his daily actions and interaction with others and place the needs of others before his own. He's enthusiastic about the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process at the board level, and to support and encourage north Halton students to become more involved in both their school and Catholic community.

Student trustees have the same rights as trustees to participate in board and committee meetings. However, student trustees don't have voting rights nor the right to be present at 'in-camera' sessions.
