

Bail hearing for suspect in death of dentist postponed

The bail hearing for a man charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of a Milton dentist was put off twice this week due to a lack of court time.

Orillia resident Adam Holland, 21, appeared at Ontario Court of Justice in Barrie Monday when the hearing was re-scheduled for yesterday.

Yesterday at the same court, the hearing was re-scheduled for Tuesday. Mr. Holland will appear via video Tuesday at Barrie court to set a date for a bail hearing.

He's currently in custody at the Central North Correctional Facility in Penetanguishene.

Dr. David Dumencu, 42, was found lying unconscious with head injuries in the parking lot of an Orillia-area tavern at about 2 a.m. July 16.

He was taken to an Orillia hospital and then transferred to Toronto Western Hospital where he died July 18.

A post mortem revealed the cause of death was a blunt force head injury.
