

Lots of lost pets haven't been claimed by owners

• from SHELTER on page 2 through this difficult time."

You can help in one of the following ways:

- Claim your lost pet. Owners with lost pets should call and file a lost report and then visit at least once a week and call every couple of days.

- Become a foster parent. Foster parents care for animals too young for adoption or those that have been injured and need recovery time.

- Contribute financially.

- Consider a pet from the humane society first. Matches are made with both the pets' and owners' wellbeing in mind.

- Spay/neuter your pets. This is one of the most effective means of controlling the pet population, and has added health benefits for your animal.

The Oakville Humane Society, a non-profit charitable organization, has been assisting Oakville's needy animals since 1961, and took on the animal control contract for Milton in 1987.

It's located at 445 Cornwall Rd. in Oakville.
