UNDER 5 Greenpark

Horne Construction

in what was a thrilling Monday night game. The first half saw great scored two goals. Pete Chiappino and Oscar Fisher evened the score Shawn Murray and Issac Mistruzzi for Milton Jaycees. for Greenpark with a goal apiece. The combination of Adam and Daniel Svoboda proved to be the difference as Adam assisted in Daniel's game winning goal. Abbey Pantusa was outstanding in goal, keeping Greenpark in the game right to the end. Andrew Fletcher played a great game in goal for Horne Construction in the second half.

A Designers Touch Domino Pizza, Wescom, Zellers

In clement weather, led to low attendance. A Designers Touch had a team show but Domino's, Wescom and Zellers were lacking players. The 3 amalgamated into one, exhibiting the true spirit we all wish to see. The best game yet. Ronan of Domino's was first in goal for the "multi's" and Luke of Zellers held down the net for the second half. Sean of Domino's Pizza scored 2 goals, Luke of Zellers got 1 and the Could have been anyone's game! Both teams were evenly matched Wescom twins, Charles and Michael Jia scored I apiece. and the score was 0 -- 0 until the last few minutes of the game when Congratulations to all players for braving the conditions- especially A Ryan Tosik was able to put one in for Tim Hortons. Goal tenders for Designers Touch for allowing this unconventional game. Special Oxford Learning Centers were Cameron Jackman and Chris thanks to all players from the "multi" team for participating- Sean, Boutassis. Goal tenders for Tim Hortons were Erin Rogers and Katie E-Clips Madeline, Sanroop, Chad and Ronan from Dominos Pizza; Luke and Alford. Special mention to Tim Horton's Emily Morse. UNDER 6

Lion's Club Tim Horton's

Despite the humidity it was an energized match between the Lion's Club and Tim Horton's teams. Conner Miller was first to send a goal flying into the net for Tim Horton's. Joshua Squires answered with a goal for the Lion's Club. Goalie, Joshua DaCosta, rocked in net! Alyssa Smillie and Gabriel lozzo from the Horton's team shone one the field. Brittany Rayner was kept equally busy in net by the persistence of Marco Giannuzzi and Jacob Dinis from the Lion's team. The second half was charged as Riley Genier defended the Horton's net. Conner Miller scored another 2 goals for the Horton's team and Joshua Squires rocketed down the field to score his second goal for the Lion's Club. Ryan Egger defended the Lion's net with spirit and high energy. An excellent game played by all!

Zellers Mattamy Homes

This proved to be an exciting game on a beautiful night for soccer! Congratulations to goaltenders Conor Hendershot and Jonathan Kirkwood for Zellers and Mustafa Hassan and Joshua McMillan for Mattamy Homes. These goalies were kept on their toes as each team worked to fire on the nets. Scoring goals for Zellers were A.J. Sabater, Jacob Collier, Jennifer Mattell and Conor Hendershot (2). Mattamy goal scorers were Matthew Milinarevic, Alex Keffer and Devin Mifsud. Special mention goes to Takara Blake-Cameron of Zellers and Erin Miller of Mattamy for a super effort throughout the game.

Mattamy

Special mention goes to Aislinn Martin and Viola Moss for KPMG and to Gianni Ginochhi and Kathleen Hagen! All players had an excellent game, considering the hot weather this particular evening.

State Farm Optimist

State Farm came out strong in the first half with Captain Thomas Harten scoring 2 goals and Greg Ciotka scoring 1. Optimist Goalies Alyssa Barrow and Brandon Jozwick did a great job holding the score while teammates Frances McCall kicked in 2 goals and Samantha Blair contributed 1 goal to tie the game. State Farm goalies Jade Ramsay and Jenna Ayers were able to hold off strong Optimist plays by Alex Orosz and Britney Marko. Callum Fisher, Rodrigo Aguirre and Connal Fisher did an awesome job providing several scoring possibilities for State Farm.

Wright's Corner Restaurant Tim Hortons

The action was back and forth in this close game. It was 1-1 at the half because of good goaltending by Jacob Tremblay of Tim's and Justin Turner of Wright's. Scoring goals for Tim's was Eric Page and Andrew Boyle with hard shots. Wright's countered with Erik Wiebe and Jack Whitford. In the end it was a late goal by Sabrina Wisson that gave Wright's the win. Also having a strong game for Wright's was Kiera Haliday and Jesse Korta

Water Depot Tim Hortons

The heat was on as Water Depot and Tim Hortons went head to head. Despite flaming goal tending by TM's Lucas Kingston; Brooklyn Brown and Jake Michaelis fired in WD's first two goals. TM's Riley Brady and Ryan Littlefair scorched the field but nothing was able to smoke past Josh D'Addario's and Andrea Taylor's sizzling goal tending for WD. During the steamy second half, Isabella Maugeri, Riley Brady and Adriana Stovole of TM turned up the heat, but WD's Alex Borthwick and Luke Champoux doused TM's chances of victory with two more goals. It was one hot game on one hot day!

Tim Hortons Nature's Fire

lent job in net each earning a shutout. Justin Schaper and Alcino Antunes scored the goals for Nature's Fire. Special mention to Joshua

UNDER 9 GIRLS Halton Recycling

Chadwick's Travel

a great game played by both teams! However Halton Recycling regained their pride after winning against Chadwick's Travel who had beaten them earlier in the year 10-0. In net for Halton Recycling were Kaitlyn Avila and Chloe Coulson, and for Chadwick Hannah Kuhn-Orenlis and Alyssa Trim. Goal scorers for Halton Recycling team were Tessie Ecclestone (3) and Oliva Ciotka who scored her first goal of the season. Chadwick's scorers were Sarah Miller (2) and Colleen Major. Special mention to Keaundra Kay for an awesome comeback!

Investors Group Maiella Contracting

This was a great game between 2 very energetic teams. Playing goal for Maiella was Michelle Kelly and Taylor Smith and in goal for Investors Group was Katherine Pryszlak. All goalies did an excellent job stopping lots of tough shots. Scoring goals for Maiella were Michelle Kelly and Rachel Davis. Answering back for Investors Group were Ferrisha Brown and Rebecca Kingson who both scored not once but twice each. Lindsay Bright of Maiella showed great ball handling and was all over the field. Megan Gordon displayed great passing for Investors and set-up 2 of the goals. Whiney Eves of Investors showed how tough she was jumping back in the game after taking a hard shot to the head. Great game girls!

Arthur Electric Ron Furik -Remax

Remax's first loss of the season was an exciting game. Even though there was no lighting coming from the sky, there was electricity on Elsley Optical the soccer field. The first half of the game was all Ron Furik Remax. On the hottest day of the year the boys in red were hotter still. Even with Rachel Lingard scoring at the end of the half. However, the lead the rain towards the end the game could not extinguish the passion that Remax had over Arthur Electric disappeared in the second half with which they play their soccer. The game started tentatively with Heather Laughton, Lynsay Watson and Madison Little each scor- enough with both sides competing well and finding limited chances ing goals. In goal for Remax with many spectacular saves was to get a clear strike on goal. Commanding performances in goal from Cassidy Chatten. The goalies for Arthur Electric were Heather Laughton and Taylor Carey. Lori Christmas played a strong midfield and Kathleen Foley and Samantha Wisson rounded out the team for Arthur Electric. A special mention goes out to Remax's Victoria Larkin and Stephanie Larkin for great charging towards the net. Thanks to all

The Tim Hortons goalies Patryk Kasowski and John Ketelaar did a great job against the scoring power of Matthew McCusker. Dylan Sabater, Jesse Bonello and Daniel Guarini. The Vanler goalies Adam Schembri and Bradley Lloyd kept the Tim Hortons team working hard with great offensive work from Gabriele Paccione and Gregory LaPorte. Honorable mentions go to Drew Lendavay of Vanler for his defensive and midfield plays and Chris Woods of Tim Hortons for his

It was a very confusing start to the game as both teams had the same colour uniforms, but after that was straightened out the game was an exciting one. In the first half of the game, Aero supplies came on strong, with Charlie's taking charge in the second. David Lang, and Jordan Rinehart, goalies for Charlie's held them to a 2 all game, as did Jake Skoryk and David Thibodeau, goalies for Areo Supplies. Goal scorers for Charlie's were Conner Brodie and Adam Lauder, and for for Arthur Electric were Tori Mediros and Emma Kuhn-Ornelea. Aero Supplies were Liam Shiels and William Skoryk. Special mention to Tom Robin and Zachary for playing a great game, keep up the good

Gorrud's Auto

The continuous drizzle of rain and wet field made for challenging conditions but Gorrud's Auto and Ruffins played a great game with determination. Super job by the goalies of both teams despite the slippery conditions: Cody King and Jordan Dotson for Gorrud's Auto, and Jessica Pallace was unbeatable. Michael Running and Jordan Hopper for Ruffins. Blake Eram and Nathan Schaper scored the goals for Gorrud's Auto. Goal scorers for Ruffins were Jordan Hopper, Michael Running, Mathias Franzen and David Cramer. Honourable mention for Ruffins goes to Steven Chmurzynski and Thomas Cramer. Jake Leblond and Spencer Campbell played an excellent game for Gorrud's Auto.

Lockport Auto Aero Supplies

In a friendly atmoshere Aero Supplies led by superb playmaking provided by Tom Robin and Zachary O'Neil kept Lockport's keepers the scoring.

Jacob Quinn and Kevin Galley busy. David Thibodeau and Liam Shiels were kept on their toes by a constant stream of shots by Lockport Nature's Fire goalies Jamie Scully and Jacob Rondeau did an excel- Auto with Micheal Warner, Jacob Quinn, Christopher Mikulic, Kevin Genier for his fast running and amazing throw-ins and Mary Leblond Jones, Samuel Fournier and Matthew Luce provided Lockport with solid defensive play.

was an exciting game to watch with both sides showing strong play against Gorrud's Auto. Goal scorers for Gorrud's Auto were Nathan Schaper and Matthew Gooding. Tyler Ganly with 2, Robert Manning and Brendan Geneau scored the goals for E-Clips. Special mention to Blake Eram and Jake Leblond for their excellent passing and offensive plays. James Hopkins also played a strong game for E-Clips.

High Five Photo Nadalin Electric

An excellent game played by both teams. High five came out strong tonight, Nadalin electric had to work very hard in defence but High five was relentless this game. High Fives goalie Clark Walters kept out all of Nadalin Electric's attempt goals, while goal tenders for Nadalin Electric Josh Kuri and Michael Harper kept on their toes the entire game. Goal scorers for High Five include Joey Macdonald scoring three goals, Broc Tracey scoring one, Lorenzo Scremin scoring one Loblaws goal, and Ryan Tanason also with one goal. Special mention to Ben Nadalin and Emerson Chambers for their excellent plays. Also special mention to Peter Gunn for his excellent defence stopping many potential goals. Way to go Peter!

Wallace Pontiac

and Nicholas Hoffman in net for Wallace. Both goalies had some great view it was an exciting game and all players deserve mentioning. saves and only let in one each. Tyler Ganly of E-Clips started the scoring and Derek Mori of Wallace answered back with a blaster from Cody Mussleman and Kyle Nelligan. The first half ended tied at one. The second half saw Brenden Geneau in net for E-Clips and Jason Mori, Derek Mori and Nicholas Hoffman in net for Wallace. Tyler Ganly scored two quick goals at the start of the second to finish off his hat trick for the night. The Warriors were down but not out. Matthew Harris of Wallace moved the ball up the field and passed to Derek Mori who scored his second of the night. Wallace's defence squad of Jason Mori, Andrew Dodson, Nicholas Hoffman and Cody Mussleman did an awesome job of keeping the ball out of their end all night. The forward squad of Kyle Nelligan, Brett Kirkwood, Derek Mori and Matthew Harris had an excellent offensive second half-keep-2 ing E-Clips goalie on his toes. Way to go Warriors! An amazing team

Lockport Auto

In a game featuring end to end action superb goal keeping by Phillip Wells and A.J. Retera-Robinson for Foodport and their Lockport counterparts Andrew LeVear and Jacob Quinn kept the scoring to a minimum. A large crowd that gathered for this derby enjoyed some fancy playmaking by Lockport's Christopher Mikulic, Micheal Warner and Drew Jones with Shaan Sohail, Taylor Moks and Matthew Lenahan leading the way for Food Port. Breaking a solid defensive wall of Jordan Medeiros and Evan Howell was Andre Rowe for the Food Port team. Scoring for Lockport Auto were Jacob Quinn and Andrew LeVear

Shoppers Drug Mart

Tristan Tapsen for SDM and Nico Singe for Elsley Optical further spoiled the attackers efforts. Midway through the half SDM broke the dead lock through Dylan Lee. This was followed by a period of SDM pressure, which resulted in a further goal, by Lee and one from a sweet strike from the edge of the box by Connor Haluburton. At 3 - 0 up and looking good SDM lost the plot and conceded a quick goal to Zach Collier. Looking directionless for an agonizing period SDM finally found there way again and finished the half strongly with a late goal from Gareth Browne. The opening stages of the second half seesawed between goalmouths with both sides exchanging scores. Collier and Marcello Mule for Elsley and Browne and Lee for SDM. At 6 -3 Elsley Optical were showing signs of pulling this game back, but as has been typical throughout the season SDM seem to find anothaindrops SDM raced to an 8-3 lead through Ryan Hunter and apsen, who once again showed his prowess from a free kick. In the closing stages of the game Browne score two quick goals to make it a comprehensive victory for SDM.

Ontario Energy Arthur Electric

Becka Hinton and Paige Dugay each took 3 goals for Arthur Electric over Ontario Energy Savings Corp. who had just enough players to play the game with no subs. Brooke Scully for Arthur Electric took home 2 goals to finalize the game at 8-0. A great game played by all especially Ontario Energy who had a fill in coach this week. Goalies for Ontario Energy were Vanessa Hartwick and Krystal Reid. Goalir

Sardenall Greenhouses Millweld Enterprises

A vacation depleted Millweld Enterprises put up a brave fight, but were unable to keep the Sardenall Greenhouses attackers at bay. Sardenall keepers, Teagan Sidsworth and Jessica Pallace combined for the shutout. Emily Sine and Taylor McLardy each had a goal while Emma Smith and Sydney Carey netted pairs. Even though down by six, the Millweld girls went on the attack in the final 15 minutes but

Van Dongen Landscaping Millweld jumped out to an early lead in the first half with two quick goals. Nicole Brough set up the first goal when she passed the ball over to a wide-open Megan Wain. Van Dongen got on the board in the second half, when Nemah Hasan found the back on the net. Nicole Burgess tied things up shortly after when she scored on a penalty kick. Jenna Wilson and Victoria Gazzola kept the Van Dongen's keeper, Raba Hasan busy until with only minutes left Delaney Brough found Megan Wain, who added her third goal of the night to cap off Halton Machining

Van Dongen Landscaping Nicole Sellors opened the scoring for Millweld when she redirected a 2nd and 3rd goals, which were scored by Megan Wain and Nicole Sellors. Millweld keepers, Chelsea Gall and Ashley Young kept Van Dongen off the score sheet with excellent goal keeping. Van Dogen keepers, Alycia Van Dongen and Nemah Hasan allowed only 2 goals each even though they were under constant pressure. Megan Wain finished the scoring after taking a pass from Kaitlyn Bell. Special mention goes to Millweld's Jenna Wilson for her extra effort and hard

BOYS UNDER10 Aim Lock n Safe

Exiting game with scoring opportunities for both teams. Team Loblaws is showing great improvement and teamwork. Aim lock n safe got a hard time playing the ball round and ran in the solid defense of Loblaws. Great goal tending from Loblaws goalies David Brechin and Jacob Smith. Loblaws goals scored by Galen Harris and Aaron Miller. Julian, Luke and Colin scored the goals for Aim lock n safe. It was a great game to watch for the fans and coaches.

A rainy evening did not dampen the spirits of either team. All the boys played well. Scorers for Loblaws David Brechin (1) and Dale Murdych (2). In net for Albatross were Alex Krane and Thoren Elismere. Scorers for Albatross were Robert Hunt (2) and Nathan sion of the opposing teams and opposing coaches. A fluke goal Vis (1). The goal tenders for Loblaws were Jacob Smith and Brad which keeper Alex Cosme could not possibly stop fired up the Steeves MacDonald. Special mention to Albatross players - Thoren Welland crew near the 10-minute mark. As the half progressed It was the Friday night of the long weekend and the Wallace Warriors for his ability to read the play and set up goals, Taylor Dredge for Welland grew ever more confident and physical. Fuelled by the pep were short handed with only one sub all game. Some would think the his strong defense, and Justin Davidson for strong defense and his talks of Coaches Ralph and Kirby and reorganized in midfield and Warriors would be down and out but they awed the crowd and rose ability to read the play. Loblaws also acknowledges Aaron Miller to the occasion. The first half saw James Hopkins in net for E-Clips and Nicholas Todosijevic for their relentless play. From a spectators

BOYS UNDER 10 REP

Milton lost 2-0 against a decent Oakville feam but one that also played without any spares. As has often been the case this season, Milton played strong in the first half but was unable to put in the goal needed to inspire the team through to the second half. Despite strong play y Milton's keeper Mitchell Adamson, Oakville eventually went ahead

The Milton "Paintech" Magic entered a highly competitive Ajax tournament and, although they did not advance to quarterfinals, played three solid games. Notables in the tournament were defence Kevin Entmaa and Ross Morgan who both scored (assisted by defender Eric-Schroder) and goalie Mitchell Adamson who kept the team close throughout. The team had a raft of injuries, which impacted, on their success. Adam Blay played well as sweeper as did Christian Pinheiro

On July 26, the team faced off against Caledon and finally had a big night with goals. Striker Matthew Hunter scored three goals with his last coming off a brilliant header into the net assisted by Liam Robinson and Mackenzie Robertson who put a beautiful cross over to Hunter after receiving Robinson's pass. Centre midfielder Liam Robinson scored after breaking through the defence as did winger Cameron Stockall who had been threatening from the opening minute. Final score was 5-0 Milton. Mitchell Adamson kept all shots out and Eric Schroder filling in as sweeper dominated the defensive zone. It was a total team effort with contributions from Daniel Nikolich, Mathew McPhail, Ross Morgan, Jeremy Gooden, Kevin Entmaa, Christian Pinheiro and call-ups Liam Venerus and Andrew

Aim Lock&Safe

Another entertaining match with Amanda Masciantonio opening the scoring with a low hard shot for Aim Lock. The Metform Defense once again played well with Emma Koopstra's strong tackles. Metforms lightening quick midfielder Hayley Harding tied the score as she unlocked the Aim Lock defense. Aim Locks Ashley Asrula put the visitors ahead before halftime. Metform started the second half with a goal by Taylor Waver. This game would be end to end until Aim Lock & Safes Ashley Thompson settled it on a last minute penalty.

Aim Lock & Safe

A great match of skill and talent... Lots of wonderful plays. Rhiannon Kay with 3 goals and Annalisa Mazzorato and Emi Giddens with a goal

Milton IDA

Once again the Metform squad found themselves in an end to end thriller Metforms Katie Kluge scored 4 for the home team with IDA's Brittany Delnin countering with 4 of her own. Metform had great efforts in defense by Melana Harman and Marion DiPalma. Chelsea Lister ran all night for the home team. Milton IDA's Vanessa Matos scored along with Annelise Johnston. Although they were 2 goals down Metform pressed and found a late goal by Sabrina Loeprich. After the final whistle both coaches applauded the teams for their entertaining attacking play.

Dr. Angelika Koeth Brian's Auto Repair

Zaks Pharmacy Turner Chirokids

Pharmacy pulled out all the stops to earn a well-deserved tie against a strong Turner Chirokids team. At the beginning of the second half with the score tied at one. Turner Chirokids caught Zaks a little flat footed scoring two quick goals. Patrick Osbournes speed and foot work giving them the advantage however Zaks Pharmacy soon got their act together with Simon Hopper and Colm Whitford showing relentless determination at both ends of the field. Zaks could well have come away with a win but for solid defending by Brent Burke and talented goaltending from Mitchell Turner. Goal scorers for Zaks Pharmacy were Brandon Zomer and Simon Hopper with 2 apiece. Turners goal scorers were Patrick Osbourne with 2, Thomas Horvatt

BOYS UNDER 13 REP

The air was redolent with the smell of cigar smoke and toasted marshmallows. The omnipresent hovering of mosquitoes taunted our players while the field was burning up with the energy and pasdefence Milton held Welland to only one goal in the second half. although an excellent run by midfielder Lachlan Neal on a pass by a newly-positioned mid, Matt Stratton, nearly put Milton on the score board. Jeff Sinclair valiantly attempted shots on goal despite being sandwiched between two defencemen as did forward Shane Waller. Stuart Gooden and Mark Andrade displayed explosive speed in defensive modes (not their usual positions). Harley Francis, Kyle Lynch, Bobby Baker and Alex Amtmann ran relentlessly on the field throughout the match. A spirited game that left all in high spirits indeed!

GIRLS UNDER 14 . Deidre and Friends

Both teams were a bit short handed, but that is what happens during the summer months, the girls were ready to have fun. Deidre and Friends made a few adjustments on the line up. It really paid off Samantha Leoprich, who just returned from a soccer camp and wanted to prove to her parents that it was worthwhile, exploded with 6 goals. This was followed up with 2 goals from Calley Robertson. Sarah Kingdom and Victoria Innaandrea played very well as mid fielders. Both Alexander Sellors and Reanna Desroches had a strong game for Deidre and Friends. Kayla Hirst responded for BB Racing as the Ione goal scorer. Both Jillian Mlot and Rebecca Dias played well in net. Jessica Pickering, Alicia Reid, and Anne Rubino played well all game. BB Racing is in first place in the overall standing and just had one of those games where things didn't go right. A super effort did not show up on the score board, but everyone knows that they played

Vanler Insurance Shrine Club

Awesome kick for first goal by Rosslyn Schulz of Vanler Insurance. the first of 2 goals she had. Single goals by Danielle Clarke and Kayla Allan. Lone goal for Shrine Club by Nicole Walter. Outstanding goal tending for the night by Alli Dangov and Emma Lawrie of Shrine Club and Kyleigh Castronaro and Kayla Allan of Vanler. Exciting end to end play throughout the game.
