"No more darkness, no more night.
 Now I'm so happy, no sorrow in sight.
 Praise the Lord, I saw the light."

258 In Memoriam

In loving Memory of KOPPERS, MIEP (OMA)
*If roses grow in heaven
 Lord, pick a bunch for us
 Please place them in our Mother's arms
 And tell her that they are from us.
 Remembering her is easy,
 We do it every day.
 But there is an ache within our hearts,
 that will never go away.*
 We love and miss you...
 Marlyn, Mike, Matthew, Mark and Opa

Communicators

In one of these challenging contract and casual on-call opportunities, you will be responsible for receiving, evaluating and processing routine calls for service and life-threatening 911 emergency radio and telephone communications. With your ability to perform multiple, urgent tasks simultaneously and accurately, you will dispatch emergency responders and monitor their whereabouts and safety throughout critical incidents. You are able to quickly and effectively make critical decisions, exercise good judgement, as well as understand and independently apply complex information to a variety of circumstances. You must have a minimum of one year of experience working in a position with heavy public contact which requires you to use your excellent communication skills to obtain accurate information from a variety of clientele. Well developed data-entry skills in a computerized environment are essential. This role requires working 12-hour rotating shifts in a 24/7 environment, including weekends and holidays.

Please send your resume, quoting Competition #04-C-14, by August 18, 2004, to: Human Resources Services, Halton Regional Police Service, 1151 Bronte Road, P.O. Box 2700, Oakville, Ontario, L6J 5C7. Fax: 905-825-5105. No phone calls, please. The Halton Regional Police Service is committed to the principles of equal opportunity. We thank all applicants, however, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

ACCOUNTING MANAGER

Our passion is to be "The World Leader for Infrastructural Coatings". We create and market high performance protective coatings that protect and preserve the infrastructure upon which modern society depends. Our coatings are so effective that they can literally double or triple the life expectancy of the structures they protect. Canadian owned and operated, we compete on the world stage with great success.

Madison's new Accounting Manager will join our team of results-oriented, motivated professionals. The incumbent will have 3 direct reports and be responsible for the general accounting, costing and pricing, payroll (Canadian and US), receivables, payables and switchboard. This position will also assist with year end audit, physical inventory, annual budgets and special projects as required.

We require a professional accounting designation or an individual who is within the final level of the designation coupled with 5-10 years hands-on experience in an accounting supervisor related role. The successful candidate will be outgoing, internally motivated and ready to assume a broad, varied role in a small dynamic company. Success in this position will be dictated by the ability of the candidate to consistently deliver high quality results while managing multiple tasks and mentoring and developing the members of the team.

If you are passionate about advancing your career with an industry leader, please forward your resume to:
