

Under-14 Magic all-stars finish first in Mississauga

Milton's Under-14 all-star soccer squad didn't so much win last weekend's Mississauga All-Star Tournament as bulldoze its way to championship honours.

Outscoring their collective opposition 27-6, the Magic went undefeated at the showcase and punctuated their title run with a 6-2 thrashing of defending champion Kitchener Sunday afternoon. Matthew Fratarcangeli exploded for four goals, while single deposits were chipped in by Travis Cupples and Cian Gavin. Kitchener held a brief lead before Milton tallied twice in the first half and then pulled away to its decisive victory. Fratarcangeli dented the twine a total of 10 times over the weekend for MVP recognition. One of his other multi-goal performances came in semifinal play versus South Simcoe. He tallied twice to fuel the 5-1 win, with Cupples also potting a pair and Liam Hope rounding out the scoring.

En route to the final four, the Magic toppled Oakville 4-1, tied Rexdale 2-2 and massacred Norval Croatia 11-0. Gregory Brooks stood tall between the pipes all weekend.
