

NEW CHILD DAYCARE OPENING IN MILTON

Kym Selg in conjunction with the NEW Pentecostal Church in Milton will be opening Little Hands Children's Centre, Monday, August 30th.

Kym has lived in Milton for 30 years and is the mother of 2 children, Natasha and Luke. She will be overseeing the day to day routine and be running the Board of Parents & head of Staff.

Kym wants to offer Milton "top of the line" day-care with the emphasis being one on one with the child and his/her parents.

They offer hours from 6:30am to 6:00pm and will be accepting children 6 months of age to 12 years.

Kym Selg with Pastor Dan. Luke & Natasha are in front.
