

Fall bridal show coming up

The Fall National Bridal Show returns to the International Centre September 10 to 12, offering couples an opportunity to draw on the expertise of more than 250 wedding exhibitors who can help them plan every aspect of their special day.

More than 16,000 visitors are expected to attend the show to see the latest in wedding fashions, products and services conveniently presented all under one roof.

The spectacular "Forever" fashion show graces the stage daily, featuring top couture and ready-to-wear designs for the whole wedding party.

The show times are September 10 at 7:30 p.m. September 11 at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m., and September 12 at 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Brides-to-be who love a great deal will be interested in a huge bridal gown sale hosted by Sposabella in which all gowns will be priced between $299 and $499.

For one couple it will be the dream of a lifetime. Couples can enter for their chance to win a $25,000 Toronto Star dream wedding to be held live at the Spring National Bridal Show. The winners receive a reception, bridal gown, photographer and videographer, music, flowers, wedding bands, bridesmaid dresses, classy formal wear, limousine, cake, plus a $400 HBC Gift Card.

The Life Network is holding a casting call for Sexy Girl, its new reality makeover series. The successful applicant will receive hair and make-up sessions, a glamour shot and a taped copy of the episode in which she'll star.

The International Centre is located at 6900 Airport Rd.

Admission costs $15.

For more information, call (905) 815-0017 or 1-800-265-3673.

Consumer show for seniors

Seniors who are looking to make the most of their 'golden years' will enjoy the first annual Forever Young 50+ Consumer Show held September 18 at the Sir John Colborne Centre, 1565 Old Lakeshore Rd., in Oakville.

The one-day event, which runs from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., will feature more than 40 exhibitors offering products and services of interest to seniors in the areas of travel, insurance, investments/financial, health, housing and vehicles.

Throughout the day there will be informative seminars on a range of topics including travel, housing, finance and more.

Visitors will also enjoy a barbecue lunch (11 a.m. to 2 p.m.), door prizes and the sweet sounds of the Toronto All-Star Big Band.

Admission costs $5, which includes the barbecue.

There's free parking on-site or at Hopedale Mall, 1515 Rebecca St. There's also parking on the east side of Zellers, and a courtesy shuttle is available on the hour.

For more information on the show, contact Lyn Underwood at (905) 337-5591 or visit www.premierconsumer-shows.com.
