

Play should leave audience in stitches

• from 'THE FOURSOME' on page B1 much.

"I love the control," he said, laughing. "I thought I'd hate directing because you're not the centre of attention. But that's the reason I love it. You get to be all of the characters."

He said golfers will particularly enjoy this show, because they understand the camaraderie that takes place on the course.

The audience is sure to be chuckling throughout this comedy, Mr. Raimondo said.

"It's not the kind of slap stick comedy you may get sick of after 15 or 20 minutes. It's the type of comedy that gets deeper and deeper."

As someone who first watched The Foursome with Mr. Foster playing one of the characters, Mr. Raimondo said he was enamoured with the production from the first viewing.

"I thought it was great. What I like is if it's done properly, you really enjoy the characters. That's one of the most important things. Relationship-type stories are more interesting and bring more emotion," he said.

Directing presents some unique challenges actors don't experience, Mr. Raimondo said. "You have to look at all the characters and how they mesh, as opposed to just your character."

Play-goers can choose between the show-only option, which costs $15, and the dinner theatre, which costs $35 per person. The show-only dates are next Friday and October 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. with doors opening at 7:30 p.m. New for this year is a matinee performance being offered October 24. Doors will open at 1:30 p.m. and the show will begin at 2 p.m. A cash bar and refreshments will be available at all dates.

The dinner theatre will run October 23 and 30. The bar will open at 6:30 p.m., dinner will be at 7 p.m., and curtain call will be at 8:15 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased at Delacourt's, 227 Main St. E., by cash or cheque, or by calling (905) 875-0629.

I'm saving up my luck for the big payoff football for a national championship representing the town of Milton to the whole country.

After a mediocre C and weak P, I've only got four letters left, and I haven't even got a word yet. I need an R, badly. Next letter is a W, followed by a B. I don't even have a B.

Now that I think of it, I don't even want to win the $50,000 because then my chances of a bigger win would be minimal. If it's taken me this long to get a win of any kind, I'd rather save it for the millions. I hope I don't win, and that's not just reverse psychology.

I got an O, giving me my first word. Onyx. One more letter to go. I hope it's not an R.

It's a G, so I win absolutely nothing. Good.
