

Store one of only six featuring new concept, design long-time owner Drew Mudge.

Mr. Grant said he's hoping that Canadian Tire will be a place where the people of Milton can always find what they're looking for.

"The store team has been working hard and we're looking forward to providing our customers with top-notch customer service and a great line-up of products."

He noted that the Milton location is one of about six Canadian Tire stores in existence that features a new concept and design.

"The interior is kind of softer, with more wood," he said. "It's a less sterile, more pleasant place to shop."

The new store already has about 125 employees, and Mr. Grant said they're still hiring.

"We're always looking for good people," he said.

This is the third time the Milton branch of the store has relocated and expanded since first opening its doors in 1954.

At the former Milton Canadian Tire location, a gas bar, car wash and convenience store are being constructed at the front of the property.

Milton's newly expanded and relocated Canadian Tire store, which officially opened yesterday, adds to the traditional automotive items to include outdoor clothing and footwear.
