HALLOWEEN FUN!

Frozen Jack-O-Lanterns

- 12 navel oranges
- 12 cinnamon sticks
- 1/2 gallon dark chocolate ice cream

EEEK!

Cut off tops of oranges. Gently hollow out pulp (reserve for another use), leaving a thick shell; cut pulp off tops too. Cut Jack-O-Lantern faces into each orange. Pack chocolate ice cream into shells, avoid letting ice cream come out of holes. Cut a hole into the orange top.

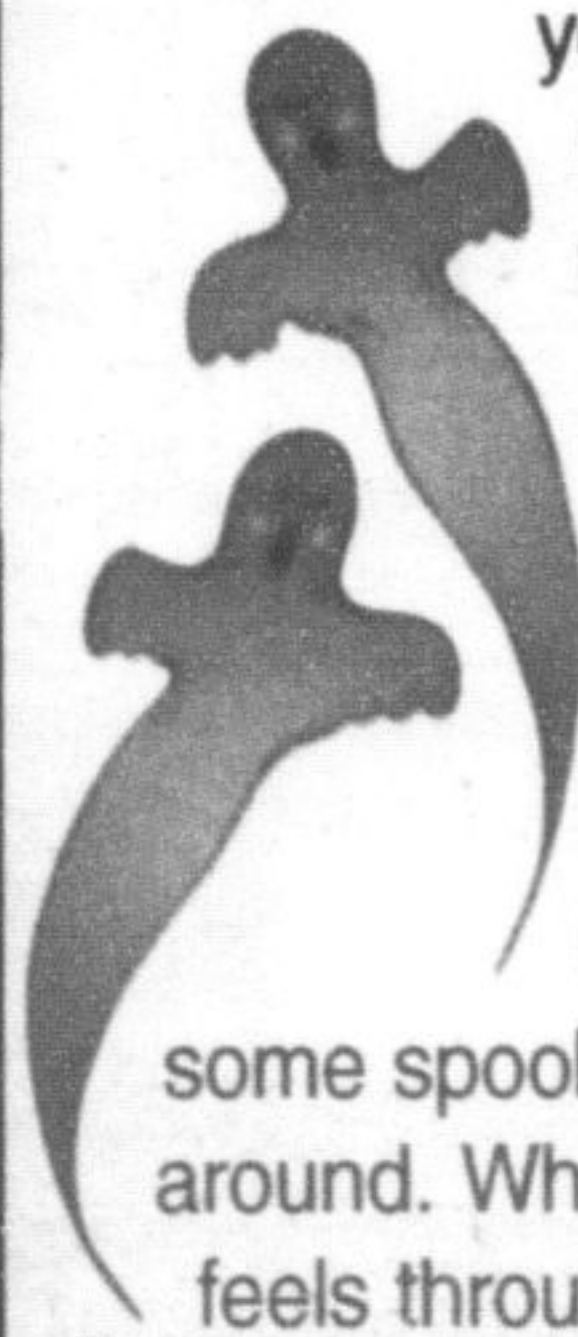

Set tops back on, over ice cream, and insert cinnamon stick stem through the hole.

Place in freezer for at least 3 hours, then serve.

Pass the Brains

Here's a Halloween variation of the 'pass the parcel' game to play at a kid's Halloween party. Scoop out a pumpkin as you would make a jack-o-lantern. Carve out a face, but don't make the holes too big otherwise the 'brains' will fall out too quickly. (alternatively, you could just draw a face on the pumpkin with a black marker pen). Fill the pumpkin with cold, cooked spaghetti (Angel's hair might be best) hiding wrapped candy in amongst the 'brains'. There should be one candy for each child playing. Play some spooky music as the pumpkin head is passed around. When the music stops, the child holding the head feels through its 'brains' to find their candy.
