

Court is concerned man dangerous to the public

• from MAN on page 1
anyone under the age of 14.

Furthermore, Mr. Pierrepoint isn't allowed to visit any daycare centres, school grounds or playgrounds for the rest of his life, nor be around a public park or swimming area where children under the age of 14 are present.

Judge Baldwin ordered that a DNA sample be taken from Mr. Pierrepoint and be kept in a DNA data bank.

Mr. Pierrepoint was charged in January with distribution of child pornography, possession of child pornography and possession of a controlled substance. He pleaded guilty to all three charges June 9.

In a January 22 raid of his Oriole Court home, members of Halton Regional Police and Ontario Provincial Police's (OPP) child pornography department found computer image files of young children in graphic sexual poses.

The raid followed a four-month investigation involving nearly a dozen police agencies across Canada.

In her explanation for the sentence, Judge Baldwin said some of the patterns Mr. Pierrepoint displayed were "similar to the cognitive impairment displayed by other notorious sex offenders such as Michael Briere and Paul Bernardo."

"Given the results of the phallometric testing and Mr. Pierrepoint's long held fantasies regarding sex, shock and female children, this court is concerned about the danger Mr. Pierrepoint presents to the public upon release."

JUDGE LESLEY BALDWIN

She added that as a prosecutor for Mr. Bernardo, she had an up-close look at his behaviours and actions.

Judge Baldwin re-iterated the findings of a doctor who assessed Mr. Pierrepoint, saying he's at risk to re-offend and to "act out sexually."

"Given the results of the phallometric testing and Mr. Pierrepoint's long-held fantasies regarding sex, shock and female children, this court is concerned about the danger Mr. Pierrepoint presents to the public upon release," she said.

She also expressed concern that Mr. Pierrepoint's behaviour began to escalate.

"He has moved on from merely possessing downloaded child pornography from the Internet and distributing it to others. He now speaks of drugging and raping three-year-old children," she said, as Mr. Pierrepoint stared straight ahead with a blank expression.

Both the Crown and the defence had earlier told court the appropriate range of sentencing is 18 to 24 months, with defence lawyer Mark Miller asking for the bottom end of the range as well as three-for-one credit for Mr. Pierrepoint's time served, since it was served in segregation.

Judge Baldwin ruled that the usual two-for-one credit for pre-trial custody would be given.

"He is in segregation for his own protection given that he used to work at Maplehurst as a cook," said Judge Baldwin. "I think it's safe to state that Mr. Pierrepoint would have found his pre-trial custody much more difficult had he been released into the general population."

SMOKING what's the point?

Someday, you'll be offered a cigarette or be tempted to smoke.

Before you start, think about it: every drag you take screws up your body.

Smoking can cause permanent damage to your body.

Once a person starts, it becomes extremely tough to quit.

And did we mention all that cash you'll be blowing in the process?

So, if you're tempted to start, ask yourself, "What's the point?"
