

Help wanted to name school

The Halton District School Board (HDSB) is seeking the public's help in naming the new elementary school currently under construction in Milton.

Names can be submitted starting Monday until January 14 at noon. Suggestions forms and boxes will be available at Chris Hadfield Public School, 1114 Woodward Ave., and the Milton Public Library, 43 Bruce St.

Entries may also be faxed to (905) 335-4447, mailed to the communications department, Halton District School Board, 2050 Guelph Line, Burlington, Ont., L7R 3Z2 or submitted through www.hdsb.ca.

"Opening a new school is opportunity to recognize civic contributions of individualism or to commemorate the unique traditions, cultures and history of the community. We look forward to receiving input from the public in determining a name for these new schools," said HDSB Education Director

Dusty Papke. "We hope to have many suggestions to choose from, including submissions from our students."

Participants are asked to include a short rationale for the suggested name and their name and phone number in case clarification is required.

It's expected the board trustees will select a name for the school in February. The new facility, located at 850 Bennett Blvd., is scheduled to open next September.

Please donate to our Christmas Bureau Fund

Donations are continuing to trickle in for The Champion's Christmas Bureau Fund.

To date, $3,618 has been collected for the Salvation Army fundraiser, which ensures all local families enjoy a festive Christmas — complete with toys for the kids and Christmas dinner with all the trimmings.

But the challenge isn't over yet, and a lot more help is needed over the next three weeks if this year's goal of $30,000 is to be reached.

Donations of any amount are greatly appreciated.

To contribute, please make cheques payable to the Christmas Bureau Fund and drop them off at The Champion office located west of Martin Street at 191 Main St. E.
