

Preliminary hearing date to be scheduled for Moore's ex-wife

The former common-law wife of suspected murderer and convicted pedophile Douglas Moore will return to Brampton court January 6.

Former Mississauga resident Sandra Martin, 30, last appeared at Ontario Court of Justice in Brampton December 17.

Ms Martin was charged in May with two counts of accessory after the fact to murder in the deaths of Milton's Joseph Manchisi, 20, and his friend, Robert Grewal, 22, of Mississauga.

Mr. Manchisi's remains were discovered in a rural area south of Montreal April 27, five months after the pair went missing. Mr. Grewal's remains were discovered three days after his disappearance.

Prime suspect and convicted pedophile Douglas Moore, 36, killed himself at Maplehurst Correctional Centre April 2 before he could be charged with the murders.

First-degree murder suspects in court

Two men charged with first-degree murder in connection with the slaying of a Milton resident will appear at Burlington court via video January 6 to be spoken to.

This was decided at their December 16 appearance at Ontario Court of Justice in Burlington.

Brian Stockton, 48, was found dead in a flaming car June 17 behind Traffix transport company on Regional Road 25, north of Hwy. 401.

Halton Hills resident Michael James McDonough, 39, and Port Credit's John Kevin McClatchey, 47, were charged with first-degree murder in June. They were arrested the day after the murder at their homes.

Equipment stolen from construction site

Halton Regional Police are investigating a break-in at a strip mall under construction in the Mattamy subdivision on Derry Road.

Overnight December 15, suspects forced open a makeshift door to the construction site and stole numerous plumbing and electrical supplies. An Emglow dual tank air compressor was also stolen.

The total loss is valued at $7,000.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court. Crime Stoppers of Halton doesn't subscribe to call display.

Milton man joins Peel police force

A Milton resident was one of 33 new Peel Regional Police officers sworn in Tuesday in Mississauga.

Daniel McCarthy, along with his fellow officers, has successfully completed a total of 100 days of training while attending the Ontario Police College and the Peel Regional Police Training Bureau.

Mr. McCarthy will now enter the final phase of his recruit training and will be assigned to a training officer at a Peel division.
