

In harmony

Ebenezer United Church on Guelph Line, north of Campbellville, recently held a celebration of carols and lessons, which featured traditional Christmas music and anthems in delicate harmonies reminiscent of British choral presentations. All were reportedly entranced by the ethereal rendition of Handel's 'He Shall Feed His Flock', sung by choir director Marion Samuel-Stevens and accompanied by pastor Mark Rutledge.

Town hopes to get funding for Sixth Line bridge work

The Town is hoping to receive almost $1 million from the Canada-Ontario Municipal Rural Infrastructure Program early next year to help fund the reconstruction of two bridges on Sixth Line.

Council endorsed deeming the project as the highest priority for the funding last week.

Town staff will now apply for the grant.

The design and environmental assessment for the bridges have been completed, a report from Director of Corporate Services Jim McQueen indicated, with the tender expected to be called soon so that work can get underway in the spring.

Project to cost $1.5 million

Money for the reconstruction was approved in earlier budgets, with an additional $426,560 called for in next year's budget to cover a cost estimate increase. The entire project is expected to cost almost $1.5 million, with $976,560 of that being funded from debt.

"If the grant, which could be as much as two-thirds of the cost or $954,000, were approved for this job, it could replace the debt," Mr. McQueen's report said.
