In Hawthorne Village, the homes present a wide profile to the street and most offer front porches, which is a great family gathering place. Neighbours greet each other warmly and some stop out front for a while just to chat. Street traffic is lighter because there are fewer homes and the streets wind gently which encourages cars to drive slowly. Parkettes dot the community and serve as places where kids play. Biking and walking paths are also scattered throughout the community. Come and visit Canada's largest WideLot™ community, and see why its a place called home by more than 3,000 families.
