

Hair today, gone...

Ernest C. Drury School for the Deaf Principal Diane Magee joined four other school staff members and a Halton Regional Police officer in shedding their locks for the Canadian Red Cross tsunami relief fund Thursday. A total of $12,000 was collected between staff and students at both the Ernest C. Drury School for the Deaf and E.C. Drury High School through this event and other activities. Above, Ms Magee finds the lighter side of having her head shaved, but looks a little apprehensive (left centre) just as the head shavers got going. Below left, she rubs her new shorter locks.
