

DEFEATING THE GIANTS IN YOUR LIFE

Giants – we all face them in our lives. Some are easily defeated but others seem to always get the best of us. Try as we might we can't completely defeat them – they return again and again to harrass us and make our lives miserable. Is there any hope that I can finally have a victory? Join us for the next five Sundays as Pastor Jim Danielson takes a fresh look at how to defeat 5 tough giants in our lives.

Celebration time

Milton Mayor Gord Krantz and Chief Librarian Leslie Fitch look over some vintage books as part of the Milton Public Library's 150th anniversary celebrations. A birthday party was held Tuesday.

Books collected for big sale

The Canadian Federation of University Women, Milton and District, seeks new and used book donations starting Sunday for its annual sale.

The fundraiser event will take place April 8 and 9 at Milton Mall, with proceeds going to educational endeavours, including scholarships for local high school students.

The federation will also accept videos, audio books, CDs, DVDs and computer games for the sale, but not Reader's Digest condensed books, National Geographic, text books, magazines or encyclopedias.

Collection bins will be placed at the Milton Public Library entrance and Zellers.
