Sing-along

Members of the Women Who Sing Chorus present 'The Sounds of Life and Living' at the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre. The recent day-long event featured singing and poetry reading in the centre's library around a candlelit centrepiece.

Owl Prowl back at Mountsberg

To many people, owls are fascinating creatures worthy of observation.

Mountsberg Wildlife Centre has certainly found this to be the case, with the ongoing popularity of its Owl Prowls. The next Prowl will be held February 12 at 6:30 p.m., offering participants a chance to join Mountsberg staff for a rare opportunity to see or hear owls in the wild.

The evening will introduce visitors to the world of owls and help them learn about many of their interesting habits through a slide or puppet show, a visit with live owls and a walk through the woods to hoot for owls.

Admission costs $12 for adults and $8 for kids aged 14 and younger. Tickets must be ordered in advance by calling (905) 854-2276. This program is part of Mountsberg's 'Nature Discovery Series'.

Mountsberg is located on Milborough Line, five kilometres west of Campbellville, between Guelph Line and Hwy. 6.
