

Gettin' a jump on spring

Mitchell Chapman catches a little air as he does a trick while friend Chris Crozier looks on. The two were getting an early jump on skateboarding Sunday afternoon at the new skateboard park. Mild weekend temperatures brought many outdoors, seeking spring activities.

Curl for Kids bonspiel ready to rock the house

It's time once again to rock the house for a good cause.

Special needs children of Milton and north Halton will once again be the beneficiaries of the eighth annual Curl for Kids charity auction and bonspiel.

The popular weekend event runs February 25 and 26 at the Milton Curling Club, and since its inception has been a sweeping success — raising nearly $260,000 that's been split between Camp Trillium, Halton Women's Place and Girls Inc. of Halton.

The three charities supported well over 100 children last year thanks in part to funds collected from the bonspiel and auction.

In addition to organizing a team of either novice or seasoned curlers, area residents can donate an auction item or make a rock, wall or end contribution of $25, $100 or $200 respectively.

There's still a number of spaces available for teams, and those interested in getting one together are asked to call Tracy Gillard at (905) 878-6992. For more information or to receive a sponsor sign-up sheet, call Randy Tarr at (905) 466-3708.

Police add second recruiting evening

Due to popular demand, Halton Regional Police has added a second recruiting information night this month.

The added session will take place February 23 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Country Heritage Park on Tremaine Road.

The recruiting information night is open to anyone interested in pursuing a career as a police officer with Halton Regional Police. Information about the constable selection process will be made available, as well as the opportunity to speak with recruiters.

Reservations are not required, but those wishing to find out more about the event are asked to call (905) 825-4747.
