

Convenience store broken into; suspects flee in waiting vehicle

A vehicle fled from police after a convenience store was broken into last week and a second break-in was attempted.

Police said Adam's Convenience store on Main Street East was broken into February 3 just before 1 a.m. Two unknown male suspects smashed the front door and took cigarettes and cash.

They took off in a 1995 black Dodge Neon. Police followed the vehicle into Brampton, but when the officers attempted to stop it, the car sped away. Moments before the convenience store was broken into, the front door of the LCBO store on Main Street was smashed in an attempt to enter, causing $200 in damage. Police said the same suspects are being sought in both incidents.

Police are looking for three male suspects. One of them is described as white, wearing a black jacket and a white t-shirt. There are no descriptions of the other suspects.

Drunk driving charge

Police responded to a complaint of an erratic driver Saturday at about 8 p.m. on Derry Road, east of Sixth Line.

A 42-year-old man of Dawson Crescent was charged with impaired driving and having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

Police Blotter

Pro shop broken into

The pro shop of the Royal Ontario Golf Course on Trafalgar Road was broken into last Friday.

Police said unknown suspects took golf clubs and bags and transported them to a waiting vehicle at about 3 a.m.

An estimated value of the stolen property hasn't yet been determined.

Local bar broken into

Hardball Café was broken into last week. Police said unknown suspects kicked in the front door at about 1:30 a.m. February 2. Once inside, they broke four beer bottles and unsuccessfully attempted to remove the cash till.

Nothing was taken. The estimated value of the property damage is $350.

Home broken into

A new home under construction on Guelph Line was broken into overnight January 31.

Police said unknown suspects entered through the unlocked rear door and stole a yellow air compressor valued at $350.

Trophy taken

A football trophy was stolen from a car parked at Charley Fitzwhiskey's on Ontario Street Sunday night.

Police said the theft occurred sometime between 8:30 and 10:30 p.m. The owner of the car returned to his vehicle to find the left window smashed and the trophy missing.

The estimated value of damage to the car is $200.

Car damaged

A vehicle parked in a Vanier Crescent driveway was damaged overnight Saturday.

Police said unknown suspects scratched the front right corner panel of the 1994 Nissan. The estimated value of the damage is $250.

Home vandalized

A Bronte Street home was vandalized Monday morning.

A carpenter working in the area called police after watching unknown suspects enter a home through a basement window. Paint was poured on the floor of the home, as well as on the walls of an upstairs bedroom. Nothing was taken.
