Ontario Power Generation (OPG) is an Ontario-based company, whose principal business is the generation and sale of electricity.
 OPG has exciting opportunities at our Pickering and Darlington Nuclear Generating Stations for women and men who are interested in challenging careers as:
NUCLEAR OPERATORS
 You will enter an intensive training program in which you will learn about the safe and efficient operation of a nuclear generating station, and be given plenty of opportunity to develop your skills. As a Nuclear Operator on shift, you will perform field operations and activities in accordance with approved procedures under the guidance of a Field Shift Operating Supervisor. Specifically, you will verify the status and participate in the operation of station equipment and systems, and will assist in the correction of abnormal system conditions.
 A self-motivated individual with a fundamental knowledge of mechanical and electrical principles will excel in this challenging role. To be considered for an entry-level position, you must have a minimum of an Ontario Secondary School Diploma with OAC (12-U) credits in Mathematics and Physics or Chemistry, plus exceptional problem-solving skills, and communication and interpersonal abilities. Academic equivalents may be considered. Demonstrated proficiency in English at a Grade 12 level is essential. Marine, Stationary, Power Engineering and Naval experience would be an asset. Those with relevant experience may be put on an accelerated training program based on individual performance.
 If you are ready to meet these challenges, please apply directly online at www.mypowercareer.com by March 11, 2005. We offer an exciting and challenging work environment, and competitive compensation.
 Applicants must have the flexibility to work shifts and weekends. Shift work premiums and comprehensive benefits are provided. You must be eligible to work in Canada.
 OPG sincerely thanks all those who apply, however, only candidates selected for testing will be contacted. OPG supports the principles and practices of diversity.
