'Gearin' up for spring

AE bantams ousted in game four

There'd be no staving off elimination a second time for Milton's addition entry bantams.

The Winterhawks avoided an OMHA second-round sweep at the hands of Caledon February 8 — beating the hosts 3-1 — but were whitewashed 3-0 in game four two nights later at Milton Sports Centre.

Daniel Lewandowski tallied twice in the series-prolonging win, while also denting the twine was Michael Powers, who helped set up goal number one. Other assists went to Kyle Johnson, Josh Partington and Michael Richardson.

The second-round elimination followed a first-round win over Flamborough in six games.

Milton begins Tri County play tonight at Milton Sports Centre against Dundas at 8 p.m.
