257 Deaths

Skinner, Mathilda Hunter Govan. At home, on February 18, 2005, this gracious, godly and loving woman passed peacefully from this life into the arms of her Lord. Born in Scotland on September 24, 1920, Hilda came to Canada in 1926 when the Govans settled in Montreal, Quebec. A high spirited, adventurous and passionately principled woman, she married John Theodore Skinner on May 2, 1944, settling eventually in Roxborough, Quebec. The young Skinner family relocated to Ontario and settled in Milton where Hilda eventually became a long-time valued employee at Robertson-Whitehouse until her retirement in 1985. A committed Christian, Hilda lived out her faith at Emmanuel Baptist Church and Trinity Baptist Church where many will fondly remember her as their Sunday School teacher and active participant in church choir and other activities. In her latter years, living in Dundas with her son Matthew, Hilda continued to support church activities as a Stephen Minister and member of the Discovery Group. Hilda's love for God and for her family were an inspiration and strength all who knew her, and her life has left its imprint on all of us. Hilda was predeceased by her husband John Theodore and her brothers Duncan Boyd and William Frederick. She is survived by her brother Donald McCalman; sons Matthew, Doug and Malcolm; daughters-in-law Pam and Toni, and grandchildren Anne Michelle; Rachel; Jonathan; Nicole and Sarah Jane, as well as many nieces and nephews of whom she was very fond. Visitation at the Cattel, Eaton and Chambers Funeral Home, 53 Main Street, Dundas on Tuesday, February 22 from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral Service to be held 11 a.m. on Wednesday, February 23 at Trinity Baptist Church, Appleby Line, Burlington. Donations can be made to the Victorian Order of Nurses (VON) or People for Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA). www.cattletonandchambers.ca
