Atoms a win away from semis

Home-ice advantage has been the trump card thus far in OMHA quarter-final play between Milton's AA minor atoms and the Orangeville Flyers.

The Winterhawks took a 2-1 series lead with a 7-4 win Tuesday at Milton Sports Centre, the third time the host squad has been victorious in as many games.

Milton will look to eliminate the Flyers tonight in Orangeville when the two teams are scheduled to meet for Game 4. If a fifth and deciding game is necessary, it is slated for Sunday in Milton.

Matt Bergman led the way for the Winterhawks in Game 3, scoring a pair of goals and contributing some fine penalty-killing work. Rounding out the scoring for Milton were Taylor McVey, Drew McMillen, Corey MacDonald, Adam Poirier and J.R. Sanderson.

Orangeville scored early in the third period to tie the game 2-2 before the 'Hawks struck for four quick goals and took control of the game. Mack Mindenhall earned the win in goal, while captain Tyler Ganly moved up from his defence position to play an effective game at centre.

Milton took the best-of-five opener by the narrowest of margins, erasing a two-goal deficit and squeaking by 5-4 Thursday.

Gareth Browne's second goal of the night, which came with two-and-a-half minutes remaining in regulation, stood up as the winner. Josh Bensusan, McMillen and Poirier also tallied.

Three nights later in Orangeville, Milton sputtered offensively after a productive first period and fell 4-2.

Browne and Colin Maltby did the scoring. Splitting the cage work were Mindenhall and J.J. Schaap.

The AA minor atoms are Milton's last remaining hope for OMHA gold after disposing of Flamborough in the second round.
