Mayor's Breakfast a Success

On Friday, February 25 at 7 a.m., concerned Miltonians from various communities of Christian faith gathered at Rattlesnake Point Golf Club to pray for governing authorities and civil leaders. Many politicians and leaders were in attendance - most notably, Milton's Mayor Gord Krantz and Federal M.P. Gary Carr. Lorna Dueck, of CTS' Listen Up! and former co-host of TV's One Hundred Huntley Street, was the guest speaker and challenged all in attendance to allow God's love to flow freely through them to others. Many thanks to the organizing committee who helped Bill McKinnon coordinate another great Christian Prayer Breakfast for our Mayor!

The event concluded with a challenge to participants to pray regularly for persons in influential places of leadership. Prayer for governing authorities, it was stressed, needs to be more than a once a year event, it is the never-ending responsibility of every believer and should become part of each person's daily prayer regimen.

Dr. Ronald Meeks, a Biblical Studies teacher at Blue

Mountain Community College in Blue Mountain, MS, told of how he had not had the opportunity to travel much, but several years ago had accompanied his father on a business trip to Italy. He writes:

"A highlight of the trip was visiting Florence, the great city of the Renaissance. One afternoon out of curiosity I went to a museum where the some works of Michelangelo were displayed.

As we viewed the half-finished sculpture of St. Matthew, the tour guide explained that this unfinished work was a prime example of Michelangelo's philosophy of art. He believed that in a stone there was a figure or statue waiting to be released. The work of the artist was to free the statue from the stone.

The statue was so lifelike that I thought any minute St. Matthew might just step out of that huge stone. As I looked at the half-finished statue, I could see that the artist had begun to free the statue but had not been able to complete it.

The tour guide went on to explain that Michelangelo had numerous works he never finished.

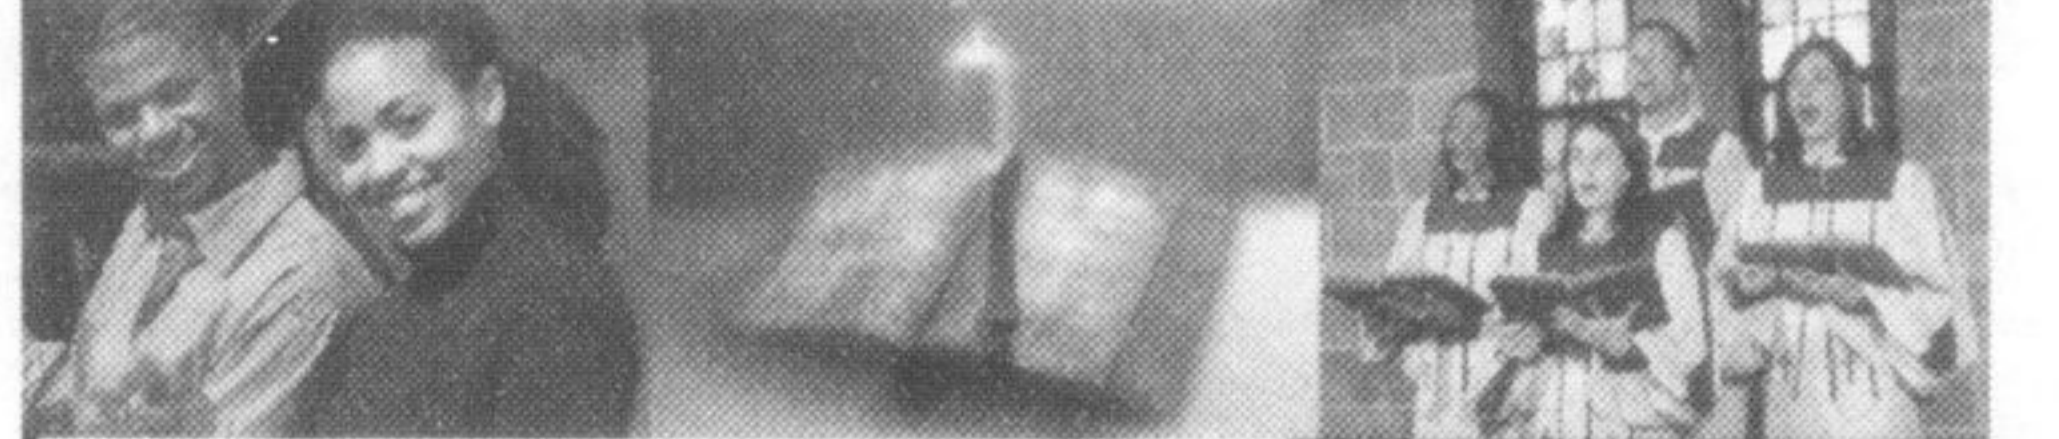

As I thought about God's work in us, I realized that God has begun a work in us to conform us to the image of Christ. However, unlike Michelangelo, God does not stop working in our lives until he finishes what he intends to accomplish."

According to the Bible, God will finish what He has started; ultimately, God has no unfinished works of grace.

Let God complete His good work in you! Find a local church and allow the Divine Artist to chip away on the rougher edges of your character. You will be glad you did! Service times and locations are published in the Religious Directory below to help you!
