

Mott named Chamber Volunteer of the Year

The Milton Chamber of Commerce has announced the recipient of its Volunteer Member of the Year Award — Howard Mott, a lawyer with Hutchinson, Thompson, Henderson and Mott.

Mr. Mott has been actively involved with the Chamber for a dozen years, and is a former director of its board, said Chamber executive director Sandy Martin. "He's been one of those volunteers who's worked diligently with us in the economic development department."

Mr. Mott sits on the Region of Halton's development charges advisory committee as a Chamber representative, and is a member of the Chamber's government relations committee.

"He helps us develop policies around business issues," Ms Martin said, adding, "Howard's just always been there."

At press time Thursday, the Chamber hadn't yet announced the recipient, so Mr. Mott wasn't included in The Champion's story published Friday about the other 2004 Community Award winners.

The award will be presented at a gala April 2 at Granite Ridge Golf Club. For tickets, call (905) 878-0581.

Leisure centre has programs

illustrator Jenny Panda will read from her new book, Tales of Glissen — an imaginative tale about witches, sprites and pixies. The reading will take place near Coles.

On March 17, from 11 a.m. to noon, kids will be able to make a free St. Patrick's Day craft. And on March 18 at 11 a.m., the Milton Public Library will once again hold its Family Storytime.

Admission to each of these activities is free, but parents are encouraged to support the Milton Salvation Army Food Bank by dropping off a box of cold cereal in centre court between Friday and March 27.

Milton Leisure Centre

The Milton Leisure Centre continues to offer its MLC Fridays program. Youths aged 9 to 13 are invited to start off their March Break Friday with a St. Patrick's Day Party from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Organizers remind kids to wear their green outfits.

As a March Break finale, the centre is holding its Fun Factor Night on March 18, also from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Kids are encouraged to bring their friends for some wacky challenges and contests.

The cost for each of these activities is $4 per person at the door. For more information, call (905) 878-7946.

Correction

An incorrect e-mail address appeared in the business section of last Tuesday's Champion.

The correct address for Nad Ismail, owner of Milton's new Holiday Inn Express, is nad@bwadmira.com.

The Champion regrets the error and any inconvenience it may have caused.
