DWELLINGS FOR SALE AND RELOCATION REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Town of Milton is accepting proposals for the purchase and relocation of heritage dwellings located on properties known as:

167 Mary Street

These Mary Street properties will be considered for some aspect of the future Town Hall Expansion project. To support the Town's goal of preserving its heritage, Milton Council is desirous of selling these dwellings for relocation preferably within the urban boundaries of Milton.

Interested purchasers may view this Request for Proposals on the Town of Milton's website at www.milton.ca or pick up a copy of the document at the Town Hall, 43 Brown Street, 2nd Floor. Proposals in writing will be accepted until May 11, 2005.

For more information about this relocation strategy, please contact Jennifer Reynolds at 905-878-7252, extension 2180.

It's all about balance

Four-year-old Brandon Earl takes a few tentative steps onto the ice surface during March Break parent and tot skating at the Milton Sports Centre. Above inset, despite being in his first year of skating, the local youngster was soon gliding around the ice with a little assistance in the balance department.
