

Charges laid after vehicle flees accident scene

Police laid impaired driving charges last week after a car involved in a collision fled the scene.

Police said that on March 17 a minor collision took place in the Main Street Carriage Square plaza at 3:30 p.m. There were no injuries.

The car involved left the scene and was soon located by police parked in a snowbank at the rear of his residence.

A 40-year-old man of Martin Street was charged with impaired driving, having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood and failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

Break and enter attempted

A break-in was attempted Saturday at the Guns 'N Hooks store at 575 Ontario St.

Police said an unknown suspect tried to pry open the rear door, which triggered the alarm. Police responded at about 12:30 a.m. No entry had been gained.

Police Blotter

Damage to the door is pegged at $100.

Man charged with intoxication

A taxi driver dropped off a seemingly intoxicated man at the Milton police station at 3 a.m. March 17.

The man was arrested for his own safety, police said.

A 40-year-old Milton man was charged with being intoxicated in a public place.

School windows broken

A number of windows were broken over several days at E.W.

Foster Public School on Coxe Boulevard.

A school custodian reported to police that the windows of two rooms were smashed from the outside by unknown suspects sometime between March 11 to 13. Then another window on the south side of the school was shattered from the outside overnight March 14.

The estimated value of the damage to the windows is $1,175.

Camera stolen from car

A camera was stolen March 13 from a vehicle parked in the Zellers parking lot at Milton Mall.

Police said the locked 1995 Ford was broken into between noon and 1 p.m. There were no signs of forced entry. A Kodak digital camera valued at $340 was stolen.
