

Your Invitation To Worship

HE KNOWS YOUR PAIN

I love the story of a little girl named Ruth, who was sent on an errand by her mother. She was gone for such a long time that her mother became frantic with worry. When Ruth finally returned, her mother hugged her tightly, asking, "Where have you been? What took you so long?"

Ruth replied, "On my way home I saw Sally sitting in front of her house. She was crying because her doll was broken."

"So," said the mother, "you stopped to help her fix her doll?"

"Oh no!" replied Ruth, "I stopped to help her cry."

Jesus said, "The greatest love is shown when people lay down their lives for their friends!" He saw that our sins caused great sorrow, so He stopped and shed not tears, but His blood, for our sins.

Written by Lenya Heitzig and Penny Pierce Rose in "Pathway to God's Treasure: Ephesians", this simple story has had a profound impact upon my heart this week. A good friend, J. Peter Gagnon, passed away unexpectedly in a traffic accident, His vehicle was tragically hit head on by car that had veered into his lane from the opposite direction. Both drivers died – albeit, Peter died instantly. In a heartbeat, his life was over.

Yet, life goes on for his beloved wife and their two boys. How will they cope and survive the loss of this precious loved one? The church, community, friends and family will all help – but God alone can heal the aching within.

People often ask: Where is God in the midst of all of our sorrow and heartache?

He is the first one on the scene – to love and to comfort, to strengthen and embrace. Even as Jesus welcomed Peter into His arms this week, He is here to help us in all of our sorrows – Believe!

Please take time this Easter weekend to visit a local church. Service times and locations are published for you in the Religious Directory below.
