

Residents set to clean up Hornby

Many hands make light work, or so they say. Why not put that saying to the test and join the fifth-annual Clean-Up Hornby Day?

The event, sponsored by the Hornby Association of Rate Payers (HARP), is set to take place Saturday, Apr. 23 and includes a free barbecue at noon at the Hornby Park.

Participants can either decide themselves what area they'd like to clean, or can have HARP assign them a section.

Or, residents can simply clean up the areas in front of their homes and then turn out for the barbecue. Call HARP president Erik Kowal, and HARP will supply the bags and arrange for garbage collection.

Participants are reminded to wear old clothing and waterproof footwear. Gloves, safety vests and collection bags will be provided.

Students helping with the clean-up can put the time toward their required school volunteer hours.

It's hoped there will be a supervised recreation area for kids.

The day will go ahead unless it rains hard. In that case, the clean-up will be postponed to the following Saturday, Apr. 30.

For more information or to confirm your participation, call Mr. Kowal at (905) 876-1582.

Ducks Unlimited zone chair Don Taylor shows a hand-carved wooden decoy and a John Erenhardt painting entitled 'More than a Friend'. These were two of the many silent auction items up for grabs at the 19th annual Ducks Unlimited fundraising dinner and auction held at Granite Ridge Golf Course Friday evening.

SMOKING... What's the point?

Someday, you'll be offered a cigarette or be tempted to smoke. Before you start, think about it: every drag you take screws up your body.

Smoking can cause permanent damage to your body. Once a person starts, it becomes extremely tough to quit. And did we mention all that cash you'll be blowing in the process?

So, if you're tempted to start, ask yourself, "What's the point?"
