Milton youngsters descended on the Mill Pond Saturday for the annual Kids' Fishing Derby. Clockwise from top left, Ann Marie Connelly makes like a fish for two-year-old son Devin as the two wait patiently in the rain for the fish to bite. It wasn't just the fish that were nibbling, as some of the young anglers seemed to have the munchies as well. Three-year-old Sierra Jess bites into her hot dog while waiting for the fish to bite. Jozien Allan gets shielded from the rain by daughter Mikayla, 6, who stretches to cover her with an umbrella as three-year-old sister Alexis continues to fish. Father Lloyd Whey changes rods with son Ryan, 9, as he stays dry under an umbrella on the shore of the pond.
