Jennings to launch new Quizzology

Half-price gas for the first 250 cars and a chance to meet the man with all the answers. Or is that all the questions?

That's what Market Drive's Q Convenience Store and Gas Bar is offering residents Thursday from 5 to 7 p.m. to celebrate the launch of a new game created by history-making Jeopardy contestant Ken Jennings.

Quizzology is the world's first audio trivia game, and residents will be able to meet Mr. Jennings and hear about the game and his experiences on Jeopardy.

To help celebrate the game launch, Canadian Tire Petroleum will be offering half-price gas to the first 250 cars to arrive at Q Gas Bar starting at 5 p.m.

Motorists who don't qualify but who visit the gas bar between 5 and 7 p.m. will be entered into a draw for $500 in free gas.

Charity sale, barbecue at courthouse Saturday

Employees from the Milton courthouse will be volunteering their time Saturday to hold a trunk sale and barbecue in efforts to raise funds for 15 charities.

The event will take place from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parking lot of the courthouse at 491 Steeles Ave. E.

The chosen charities are all provincially-based and support health education and awareness, medical research and client and patient services.

Some of the organizations include: the Alzheimer's Society of Ontario, the Canadian Cancer Society — Ontario division, Diabetes Canada, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada and the Stroke Foundation of Ontario.
