Deaf day centre opens rurally
