

Model Flying Club at Drumquin Sunday

Event a fundraiser for local food bank

Fun will take flight this weekend at the Oakville Model Flying Club's annual Air Show at Drumquin Park.

The event — a fundraiser for a local food bank — will be held Sunday from 12:30 p.m. to 3 p.m., weather permitting.

Festivities will include displays of and performances by a variety of model aircraft — trainers, warbirds, electric power, gliders, combat and rockets.

Snacks and beverages will be available.

After the show, residents are invited to fly trainers under the guidance and supervision of qualified instructors.

Admission is free, but voluntary contributions of canned or packaged food or cash donations for the food bank are welcome and will be collected at the gate.

Drumquin Park is located near the intersection of Britannia and Trafalgar roads.

For more information about either the model flying club or the event, contact Bob Zacharczuk at (905) 845-3861 or visit www.omfc.org.

Churches host music in park

There's nothing quite like sitting outside, the summer breeze blowing, and taking in some inspirational music.

Sunday, from 2 to 6 p.m., various churches will put on Christian Music in the Park at Victoria Square, in front of Town Hall on Brown Street.

Sponsored by Milton Area

Christian Churches Working Together (MACCWT), the free event will feature seven local groups and bands performing various types of music in the picturesque gazebo.

"We invite everyone to come out, bring your lawn chairs, your family and your picnics, sit back and enjoy beautiful Christian music," said MACCWT member Lorette Shermet.

A second Christian Music in the Park event will be held August 7 with different groups playing.

MACCWT is a non-profit coalition of local churches. For the past three years, the group has produced 'On the Way to Bethlehem,' an outdoor living nativity pageant.

Scrapbooking fundraiser on soon

Local scrapbooking enthusiasts can 'Crop For a Cure' June 18, a fundraiser for the Canadian Diabetes Association.

The event will be held at St. Simon's Church in Oakville from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Registration costs $30 and includes lunch and refreshments, a gift bag, idea sheets and a chance at over $2,000 in prizes.

Those who take part can bring their own scrapbooking supplies or shop from an extensive line of albums and album-making products.

Crop For a Cure is being hosted by three local consultants from Creative Memories, a scrapbooking company.

Battle of the Bands gets cancelled

Due to a lack of interest, the north Halton high school Battle of the Bands that was to have taken place tomorrow in Campbellville has been cancelled.

The event was scheduled to be held at Mohawk Inn from 2 to 5:30 p.m., but organizers said bands didn't submit entries in time.

MILTON YOUTH THEATRE PRODUCTIONS

Introducing Improv...

Would you like to laugh at least one hour a week?

Would you like to further develop your skill of thinking on your feet?

Would you like to have the opportunity of showcasing your talents?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, and you are between the ages of 10 to 17, you need to join MYTP's new program "Improvisation Hour" with Producer Christine Hann starting this September. Each week is one hour of spontaneous fun!

Christine has been a part of the theatre industry for over 20 years. She has trained with Bad Dog Theatre for Advanced Improv. Christine's performance career started with Audrey Meredith Dance Centres completing her dance teacher training with Dance Masters of America and the Canadian Dance Teachers Association of Canada. Professional credits include Hello Dolly, The Merry Widow, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, as well as Improvisation Comedy Shows.
