

It's all about safety

Makes of Fine Leather Furniture

Selecting the right piece of leather furniture should be fun and painless. What kind of leather, prices, sizes and the manufacturing of the furniture are all very important questions when you have decided to make this investment. Tannery Manor, makers of fine leather furniture is a great place to start.

Anton Burnatowski, owner of Tannery Manor, brings over 25 years of experience in this field to his location in Milton. Milton is such a growing market that he decided to open his location here. General Sales Manager, Larry Rothman, also has many years of experience in this business. Both know the furniture business inside and out and there isn't a question that they can't answer.

There is a real sense of pride when talking to Anton and Larry and they want their customer to feel totally comfortable and happy that they have made the right choice for their home and lifestyle, enjoying the pieces for years to come.

All the furniture sold by Tannery Manor is made start to finish in Milton. No part of the process is outsourced. They use only top of the hide leather, solid maple wood; the frame is screwed & doweled. All the cushions, seats and backs are detachable to optimize the life of your furniture. Each piece is built by a local craftsman.

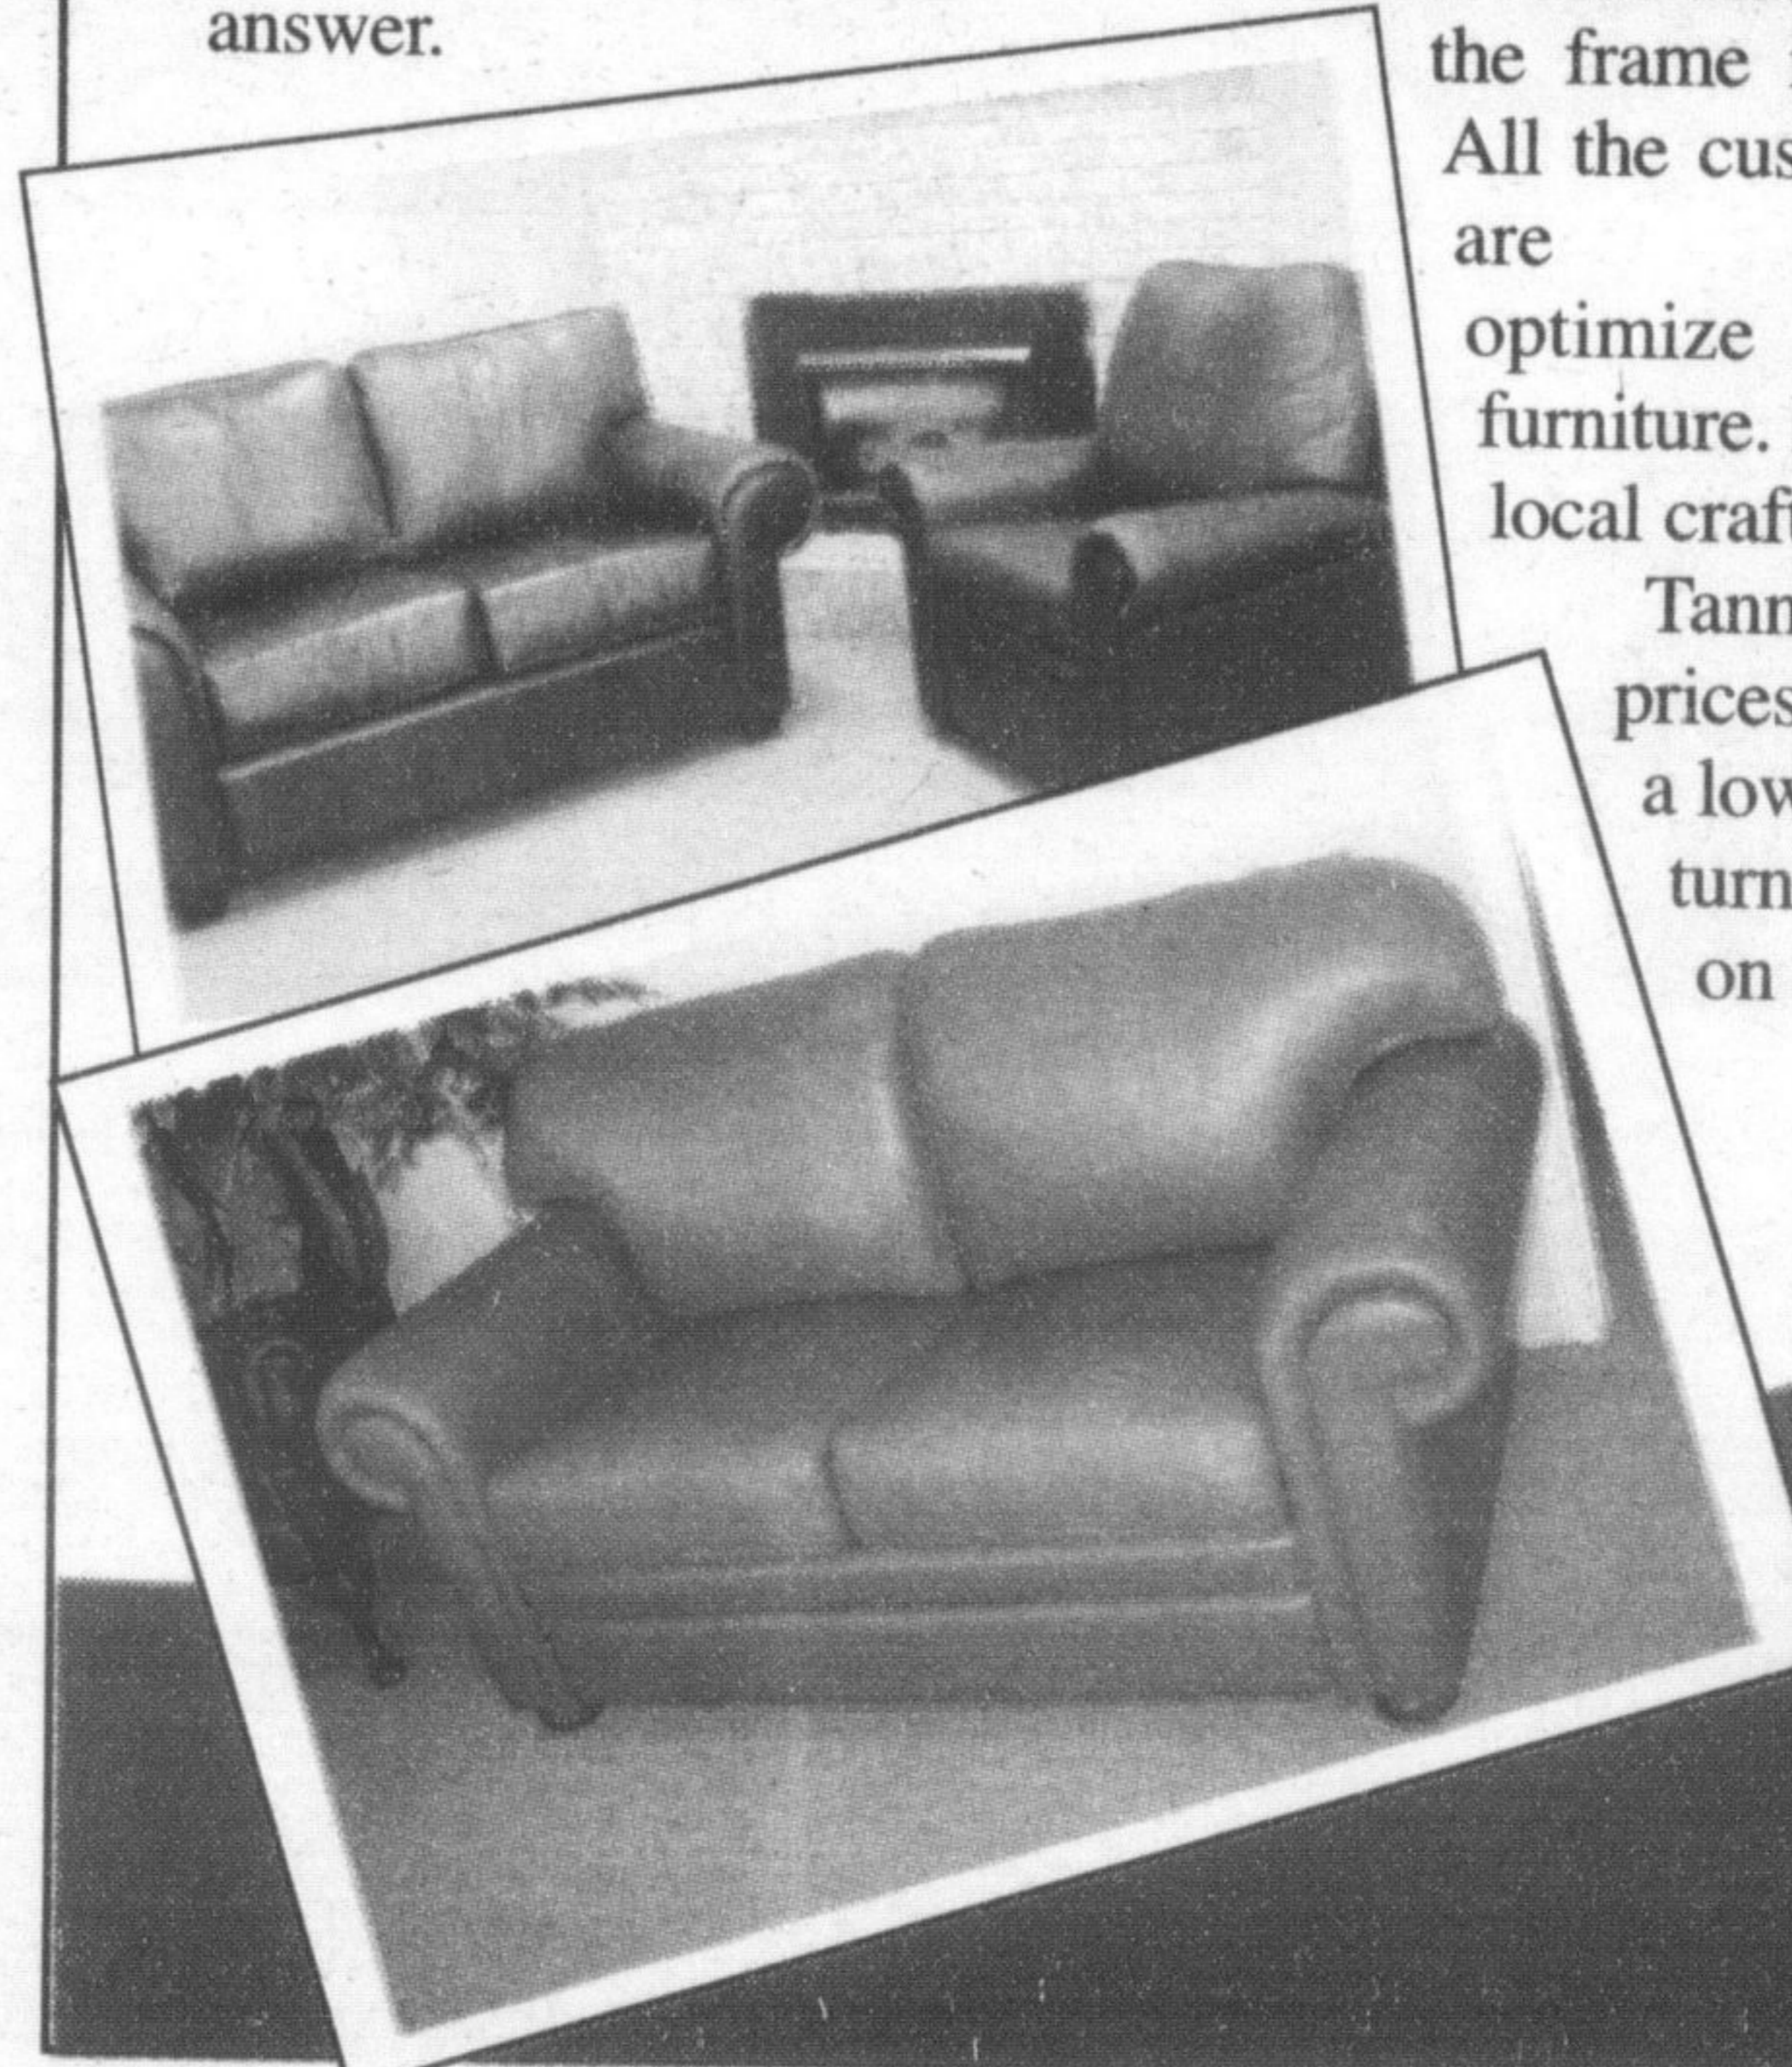

Tannery Manor keeps their prices competitive by having a lower overhead, which in turn passes these savings on to their customer.

Every piece of furniture is custom ordered (style, type of leather and colour chosen by you by the help of staff), insuring that you are getting exactly what you want and each has a lifetime warranty (see store for details). It usually takes about 4 weeks to complete your piece.

Their hours of operation are Monday and Tuesday 10am-4pm, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday 10am-8pm, Saturday 10am-5pm and Sunday 11am-5pm. They will be more than happy to schedule a meeting at other times by appointment if these hours aren't convenient for the customer.

Please feel free to stop in, browse and talk to Larry or one of their staff. You will be pleasantly surprised!
