Ashroy Sleep Centre - "Not just another mattress store"

Ashroy Sleep Centre, located at 156 Main Street, will be celebrating their 4th anniversary this July. Since opening their doors in July 2001, Ashroy has flourished into a prosperous downtown retail outlet offering quality mattresses, box springs and other bedding supplies. Ashroy Sleep Centre is a family owned business and is named after its two owners, 10 year old Ashley and her father Roy Fabian.

Ashroy Sleep Centre was first established to provide clients with a high quality night's rest. Currently the two brand names that are offered are Serta and Ashley's Own. Serta is a nationally recognized brand for being one of the best quality mattress sets. You might recall the T.V. commercials where the Serta Sheep are out looking for new work because Serta has managed to put them out of a job. Ashley's Own is a new line of mattress sets that has been designed and created by Roy and Ashley themselves and is now their house brand that can only be found at Ashroy Sleep Centre. Roy and Ashley set out to make a high quality mattress that anyone can find affordable and enjoyable. The key to this mattress line is to make available a great mattress with low overhead costs, so the customer doesn't pay for the advertising or marketing, allowing the customer to get the best bang for their hard earned dollar.

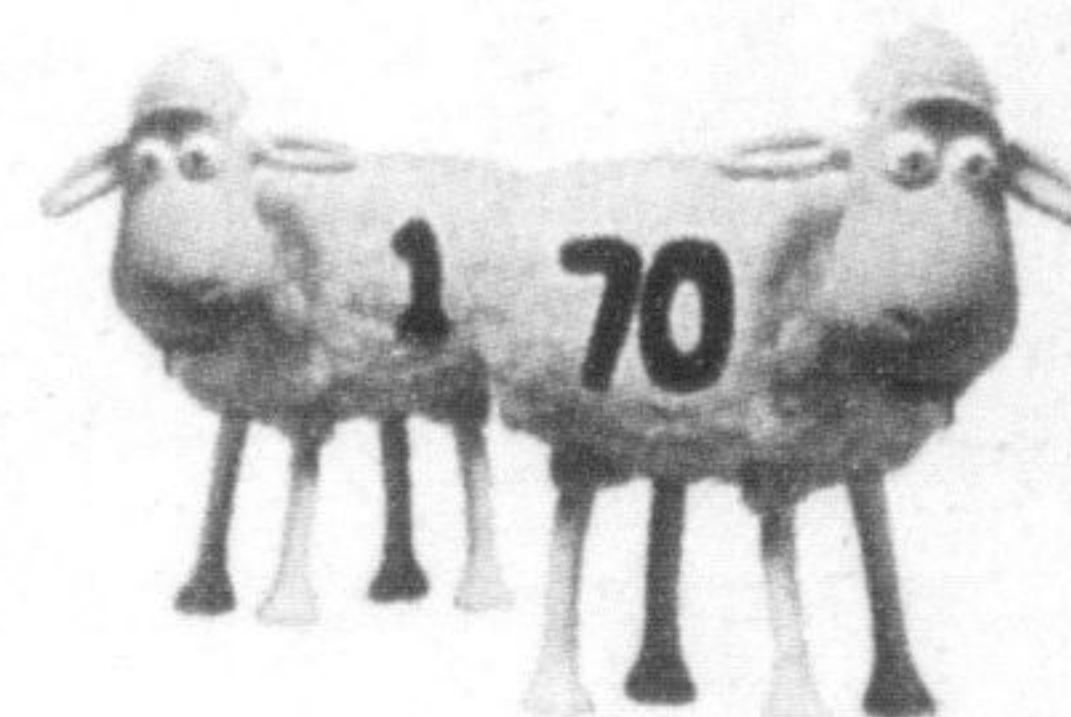

Roy has one simple rule when it comes to clients looking at one of his mattress sets. His rule is to educate the customer and arm them with as much knowledge as possible about what to look for in a mattress. He will spend as much time as necessary and will answer any and all questions the customer may have. "Most people only buy one mattress for themselves every 10 to 15 years and I want them to make the best choice possible whether they buy a mattress from us or from someone else" explains Roy. He will never push the sale of a mattress on any of his clients and will also provide a wide list of competitors for you to visit to compare against his overall offering. "We educate our clients and then we send them shopping!" exclaims Roy. After all, your mattress is the most used piece of furniture in your lifetime and is traditionally the least considered when compared to other furniture, meaning most people put more effort into shopping around for a living room sofa than they do a mattress. "Your choice of mattress is the most important decision you can make, since the quality of rest is going to determine the overall quality of your lifestyle when you wake up in the morning" says Roy. Anyone who has had a bad night's sleep can definitely relate to that.

Ashroy is proud to announce winning the #1 Serta Customer Service award in 2004 in all of Halton Region including Oakville and Burlington. Another exciting development for Ashroy is as of July 5, Ashroy will become Milton's only Chiropractic mattress centre by adding the Springwall line to their store. Springwall is the only manufacturer that is approved by the National Chiropractors Association and is marketed through chiropractors and retail outlets.

Anyone looking for a new mattress should give Ashroy a visit. For top quality education, advice, excellent mattress quality and award winning customer service, this is the best place to visit to make one of the most peaceful night sleep decisions you could ever make. Sweet Dreams Milton!
