

Stanley comes to town

TRAFALGAR WAR MEMORIAL

Honour Roll Now Available for Final Review

Construction of the Trafalgar War Memorial is nearing completion. This memorial, located at the corner of Central Park Drive and Oak Park Boulevard in Oakville, will include an Honour Roll specifically dedicated to Trafalgar Township residents who served in one of the Great Wars (WWI, WWII), and the Korean War.

A comprehensive list of names compiled by the Trafalgar Memorial Committee is being published from June 30th to July 31st to confirm existing details and gather additional information. The list, as well as "correction" forms are available on the Town's website at www.oakville.ca, and at the following locations:

Oakville: Town Hall, Sir John Colborne Seniors Centre, Oakville Seniors Centre (Kerr St.), Community Centres, Libraries, Legions and the Halton Regional Centre.

Milton: Town Hall, the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre (MSAC) and the Legion.

Burlington: City Hall, the Burlington Seniors' Centre and the Legion.

If you have any questions, or are interested in donating to the Trafalgar War Memorial please contact:
