Big Bike coming up Aug. 6

One bike, 29 local riders and a good cause equals fundraising fun.

The Heart and Stroke Foundation's Big Bike for Stroke will roll into Milton August 6 to raise awareness and funds for its mission.

The foundation invites Milton residents to witness riders from seven local businesses pedal a bike built for 30 people around downtown Milton, and cheer on the participating businesses at the Dickens and Firken Pub from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Participating businesses include Wal-Mart, ReMax Blue Springs Realty, Royal LePage, Rona, Curves, Spokes 'N Slopes and Weight Watchers.

Every year, nine residents in the Halton area alone are hospitalized because of heart disease.

The Heart and Stroke Foundation is the leading funder of research into the root causes of heart disease and stroke, supporting more than 250 investigative teams across Ontario. This year, the foundation funded 37 researchers in four central and western Ontario research institutions, a contribution worth more than $4 million.

For more information on the Big Bike or volunteer opportunities, call (905) 636-7732 or visit www.heartandstroke.ca/bigbike.
