

CPR and babysitting courses held

St. John Ambulance reminds the community that while it may take minutes for an ambulance to respond, it only takes seconds for a person trained in CPR.

This summer, the Oakville branch of St. John Ambulance is offering many emergency and standard level first aid and CPR classes.

An emergency first aid and CPR class will be held August 15, and a standard first aid and CPR class will be held over a two-day period August 15 and 16.

A babysitting course for kids ages 11 to 15 will also be offered August 10, 18 and 22.

The one-day course, which includes a babysitters kit, teaches leadership, confidence, and first aid skills in a fun and informative environment.

For adults taking care of children, there will be one-day emergency first aid with infant and child CPR classes held August 14 and September 17.

Register by Tuesday to guarantee a spot. Additional dates are available.

Correction

Incorrect information was provided to The Champion and appeared in Tuesday's article about Milton residents participating in next month's Weekend to End Breast Cancer Walk in Toronto.

Through her school in Mississauga, teacher Kim Morris helped organize the 'Change for Change' fundraiser and raised $910 — not $9,010 as was reported.

The Champion regrets any inconvenience this may have caused.
